Introduced by Sens. BROUK, HARCKHAM -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Higher Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to extending certain exemptions for persons employed as mental health practitioners, psychologists and social workers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Subdivision 12 section 7605 of the education law, as added 2 by section 2 of part Y of chapter 57 of the laws of 2018, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 12. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, nothing in this article shall be construed to prohibit or limit the activ-5 ities or services provided under this article by any person who is б employed or who commences employment in a program or service operated, 7 8 regulated, funded, or approved by the department of mental hygiene, the 9 office of children and family services, or a local governmental unit as 10 that term is defined in section 41.03 of the mental hygiene law or a 11 social services district as defined in section sixty-one of the social services law on or before [one year] two years from the date that the 12 13 regulations issued in accordance with section six of [the] part Y of 14 chapter fifty-seven of the laws of two thousand eighteen [which added 15 this subdivision] appear in the state register or are adopted, whichever 16 is later. Such prohibitions or limitations shall not apply to such employees for as long as they remain employed by such programs or 17 services and whether they remain employed by the same or other employers 18 19 providing such programs or services. Provided, however, that any person 20 who commences employment in such program or service after such date and 21 performs services that are restricted under this article shall be appro-22 priately licensed or authorized under this article. Each state oversight 23 agency shall create and maintain a process to verify employment history 24 of individuals exempt under this subdivision.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
