Individuals with a developmental disability who are receiving residen-1 tial services from an entity that is operated, licensed or certified by 2 the office or a qualified person on such individual's behalf shall have 3 4 the following generally-described rights to:

Be treated with consideration and respect.

Participate in and provide meaningful input into the development, 6 review and revision of the resident's care plan, including placement or 7 8 transfer within or between facilities.

9 Access information regarding the resident's health and safety, 10 consistent with federal and state confidentiality protections.

11 Be notified within a reasonable time of any event that directly impacts the resident's health and safety, consistent with federal and 12 13 state confidentiality protections.

14 Access any and all audio and video recordings which are relevant to any incident which affects the resident whether or not the resident 15 16 appears in the audio or video.

Access information necessary for a qualified person to make informed decisions, when appropriate, about the resident's care and care coordi-18 19 nation.

20 Financial transparency, including access to budgetary information of 21 the facility and resident's expenses, consistent with federal and state 22 confidentiality protections.

Receive visitors who visit unannounced. 23

24 Be informed of any and all staffing changes.

25 Access a facility's fire and other safety plans and any information 26 regarding a facility's passage or failure of any safety drills conducted 27 by the facility and the office.

Access a facility's food menus.

Choose a care coordinator.

30 Consult and be represented by an independent advocate, mental hygiene 31 legal services or a private attorney; and if services are provided under 32 Medicaid managed care, to have a Medicaid ombudsman.

33 Be informed in writing in plain language with up-to-date information 34 about:

35 (i) the system of care and services for persons with developmental disabilities, including but not limited to managed care; 36

(ii) the laws, rules, and regulations applicable to the rights of individuals with a developmental disability, their legal guardians or family members and other qualified persons to participate in decisions about the individual's life and to access information, records, reports, care plans, etc.; and

(iii) the procedures to challenge any decision affecting the resident. Nothing in this bill of rights shall limit any other right or privilege under law. If any residential facility service provider fails to 44 afford these rights, assistance may be sought from the facility or provider, or the office.

(d) A qualified person other than a legal quardian may, in accordance 47 48 with law and appropriate due process, not exercise a right described in this section if the resident, who is competent to do so, specifically 49 affirms, in a reasonably contemporaneous manner, that such identified 50 51 qualified person shall not be afforded such specific right. Such determination by the resident shall be described and recorded in writing in 52 53 the case file by appropriate staff of the facility or service provider 54 and a statement of reasons for such denial shall be provided to the

55 qualified person. S. 6695--A 3

1 (e) The statement of rights set forth in this section is intended to 2 be a quide to the rights of a resident or a qualified person.

- (f) Nothing in this section shall be read to limit any other rights or privileges that a resident or a qualified person may have or limit any action or relief otherwise permitted by law. Nothing in this subdivision shall alter or affect any right of appeal, formal or otherwise, such resident or qualified person may have concerning the denial of any such right.
- 9 (g) Each covered provider shall conspicuously post a copy of the bill 10 of rights in a public place at each of the covered provider's facilities 11 and provide a copy to each qualified person.
 - (h) The commissioner shall:
