individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve as members and which respect individuals' gender identity.

- § 3. Subdivision 2 of section 2-110 of the election law, as amended by chapter 373 of the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:
- 2. In the city of New York there shall be the party positions of assembly district leaders or, if the rules of the county committee shall 7 so provide, one assembly district leader and one associate assembly district leader. Outside the city of New York there shall be such posi-9 tions when the rules of the county committee shall so provide. 10 leaders shall be elected at primary elections as herein provided, within 11 every county in such city for each assembly district, or for each part of an assembly district within such county as may be designated for the 12 13 purpose in the rules of the county committee, and in every county of the 14 state outside of such city where the rules so provide, for such assembly 15 district or part thereof within such county as may be designated in such 16 rules for the purpose. Such assembly district leaders or such assembly 17 district leader and associate assembly district leader shall be of [opposite sexes] different genders, if the rules of the county committee 18 shall so provide, and shall be enrolled voters of the party residing 19 20 within the assembly district and, if the rules of the county committee 21 shall so provide, within the part of the assembly district for which 22 they are to be elected, and shall be elected at the same primary election and for the same term as members of the county committee. When 23 any such rule provides for [equal] representation [ef sexes] by gender, 24 the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for 25 26 such party positions separately by [sexes] gender marker. In providing 27 for such representation, the county committee shall establish rules that 28 provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify 29 as a binary gender to serve as district leader and which respect indi-30 viduals' gender identity. Each shall perform such duties, powers and 31 functions as the rules of the county committee may prescribe. Vacancies 32 in such positions shall be filled by the members of the county committee 33 within the assembly district or part thereof, as the case may be, until 34 the first primary election following the creation of such vacancy or vacancies for which the period for circulating designating petitions 35 36 ends at least seven days after the creation of such vacancy or vacan-37 cies, at which time the successor or successors shall be directly elected as herein provided. Assembly district leaders and associate 38 assembly district leaders shall automatically be members and shall have 39 40 the right to participate and vote in meetings of the county committee or 41 any subcommittee thereof. The county committee may provide by its rules 42 that the members of the state committee, elected in accordance with the 43 provisions of this chapter, shall possess the duties, powers and func-44 tions of an assembly district leader or an associate assembly district 45 In such event the provisions of this section shall not apply to 46 the members of the state committee but upon [his] their election as a 47 member of the state committee, such person shall be deemed to have also 48 been elected as an assembly district leader or an associate assembly 49 district leader.
- Section 2-122 of the election law, as amended by chapter 177 of 51 the laws of 1978, is amended to read as follows:
 - § 2-122. National party conventions; delegates, election. Delegates and alternates to a national convention of a party shall be elected from congressional districts, or partly from the state at large and partly from congressional districts, as the rules of the state committee may provide. Such delegates and alternates from the state at large shall be elected by the state committee or by a state convention of the party, as the rules of the state committee shall prescribe. If the rules of a national party provide for [equal] representation [ef the sexes] by gender among delegates elected from districts, such district delegates shall be elected separately by [sex] gender. District delegates and alternates to national party conventions and delegates, and alternates, if any, to such a state convention shall be elected at a primary. All delegates and alternates to a national party convention shall be enrolled members of such party. When any such rule provides for [equal] representation [of the sexes] by gender, the designating petitions and primary ballots shall list candidates for such party positions separate-ly by [sex] gender marker. In providing for such representation, the party shall establish rules that provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to serve as delegates and which respect individuals gender identity.

- § 5. Paragraph c of subdivision 3 of section 5-504 of the election law, as amended by chapter 659 of the laws of 1994, is amended to read as follows:
- c. The board of elections maintains, as a public record, at the appropriate office of the board, a complete and current alphabetized list of all registered voters, including voters in inactive status, which contains next to each voter's name at least the following information: address, town or city, assembly district where appropriate, election district, registration serial number, party enrollment, date of registration, [sex] gender, date of birth and, if the voter is in inactive status, an indication of that fact.
- § 6. Subdivision 7 of section 7-116 of the election law, as added by chapter 173 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:
- 7. Whenever a county board of elections or the board of elections in the city of New York must conduct a primary election in the respective county or the city of New York in which separate contests for [both male and female] candidates of different genders for the same party position are to be printed upon the ballots, and when rules require these positions be listed separately on the ballot, the respective county board of elections or the board of elections in the city of New York shall determine by lot [whether to first print the contest for the male candidates or the contest for the female candidates. After such determination, the same order shall be used for all ballots printed by the board of elections for the entire county or city of New York and for all contests where there are elections separated by male and female candidates for the same party position. I the order of the various gendered contests. This lottery will be conducted separately for each election that is separated by the gender.
- § 7. Section 3-102 of the election law is amended by adding a new subdivision 18 to read as follows:
 - 18. promulgate rules and regulations to provide for the ability of individuals who do not exclusively identify as a binary gender to run for positions elected in gendered contests which respect the individuals' gender identity.
 - § 8. This act shall take effect immediately.
