AN ACT to amend the public housing law, in relation to the definition of "family member"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 4 of section 14 of the public 2 housing law, as added by chapter 116 of the laws of 1997, is amended to 3 read as follows:

4 (c) that for the purposes of such regulations: (i) "family member"
5 shall be defined as a husband, wife, son, daughter, stepson, stepdaught-
6 er, father, mother, stepfather, stepmother, brother, sister, uncle,
7 aunt, nephew, niece, grandfather, grandmother, grandson, granddaughter, 8 daughter-in-law, son-in-law, mother-in-law or father-in-law of the 9 tenant; or any other person residing with the tenant in the housing
10 accommodation as a primary residence who can prove emotional and finan-11 cial commitment, and interdependence between such person and the tenant.
12 Although no single factor shall be solely determinative, evidence which 13 is to be considered in determining whether such emotional and financial 14 commitment and interdependence existed, may include, without limitation, 15 such factors as listed below. In no event would evidence of a sexual 16 relationship between such persons be required or considered.

17 (A) longevity of the relationship;

18 (B) sharing of or relying upon each other for payment of household or 19 family expenses, or other common necessities of life;

20 (C) intermingling of finances as evidenced by, among other things,
21 joint ownership of bank accounts, personal and real property, credit 22 cards, loan obligations, sharing a household budget for purposes of

2 mined by regulation;

3 (D) engaging in family-type activities by jointly attending family
4 functions, holidays and celebrations, social and recreational activ-
5 ities, or such other factors as may be determined by regulation;

6 (E) formalizing of legal obligations, intentions, and responsibilities 7 to each other by such means as executing wills naming each other as 8 executor or beneficiary, conferring upon each other a power of attorney 9 or authority to make health care decisions each for the other, entering 10 into a personal relationship contract, making a domestic partnership 11 declaration, or serving as a representative payee for purposes of public 12 benefits, or such other factors as may be determined by regulation;

13 (F) holding themselves out as family members to other family members,
14 friends, members of the community or religious institutions, or society
15 in general, through their words or actions;

16 (G) regularly performing family functions, such as caring for each 17 other or each other's extended family members, or relying upon each 18 other for daily family services;

19 (H) engaging in any other pattern of behavior, agreement, or other 20 action which evidences the intention of creating a long-term, emotional-21 ly-committed relationship.

22 (ii) a "senior citizen" is defined as a person who is sixty-two years
23 of age or older;

24 (iii) a "disabled person" is defined as a person who has an impairment
25 which results from anatomical, physiological or psychological condi-
26 tions, other than addiction to alcohol, gambling, or any controlled 27 substance, which are demonstrable by medically acceptable clinical and 28 laboratory diagnostic techniques, and which are expected to be permanent 29 and which substantially limit one or more of such person's major life 30 activities.

31 § 2. This act shall take effect on the first of January next succeed-
32 ing the date on which it shall have become a law.
