2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN SENATE

(Prefiled)

January 6, 2021

Introduced by Sens. KAPLAN, SANDERS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Veterans, Homeland Security and Military Affairs

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to creating the women veterans advisory committee

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings. Women make up 15 percent of the veterans of the armed forces of the United States and continue to be an increasingly integral part of the operations of the armed forces of the United States around the world. Few studies have been conducted to determine and understand the unique challenges that women veterans may have, both post deployment and following separation from active duty. Many veterans who are women do not self-identify as veterans and may, therefore, fail to consider various programs and benefits that are available to them as a result of their military service.

- 10 \S 2. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 361-c to 11 read as follows:
- § 361-c. Women veterans advisory committee. 1. The women veterans advisory committee is hereby created consisting of five members, with one member appointed by each of the following: (a) the governor; (b) the temporary president of the senate; (c) the speaker of the assembly; (d) the minority leader of the senate; and (e) the minority leader of the assembly. All appointed members must be women, and must be former members of the armed forces of the United States, including, without limitation, the New York Army National Guard and the New York Air
- 19 limitation, the New York Army National Guard and the New York Air 20 National Guard, who received, upon severance from service, an honorable
- 21 discharge, or other discharge under honorable conditions, including, but
- 22 not limited to, a general discharge.

25

- 23 2. In making appointments pursuant to subdivision one of this section,
 24 the following shall be considered:
 - (a) the recommendations of the director of veterans' affairs;
