S. 7211

1	(a) The provisions of these sections shall not apply to the following:
2	(i) the reporting of unlawful conduct;
3	(ii) the dissemination or publication of an image made during lawful
4	and common practices of law enforcement, legal proceedings or medical
5	treatment;
6	(iii) images involving activities in a public setting or activities in
7	a commercial setting in which legal activities are being conducted; or
8	(iv) the dissemination or publication of an image made for a legiti-
9	mate public purpose.
10	(b) Nothing in these sections shall be construed to limit, or to
11	enlarge, the protections that 47 U.S.C. § 230 confers on an interactive
12	computer service for content provided by another information content
13	provider, as such terms are defined in 47 U.S.C. § 230.
14	3. With respect to sections 250.71 and 250.72 of this article, the 15	provisions of subdivision two of section 235.15 and subdivisions one and
16	two of section 235.24 of this part shall apply.
17	§ 250.71 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the second
18	degree.
19	A person is guilty of unlawful dissemination of a personal image in
20	the second degree when, with the intent of degrading or abusing a person
21	who has been the victim of a crime described in title H of this part, or
22	otherwise causing harm to the emotional, financial or physical welfare
23	of such victim or such victim's family, or for the actor's own or anoth-
24	er person's amusement, entertainment or profit, the actor intentionally:
25	1. (a) creates and disseminates or publishes a still or video image of
26	such victim, without the victim's consent, in a manner that has no or
27	minimal cultural or social value; and
28	(b) the victim is identifiable from the still or video image itself or
29	from information displayed in connection with the still or video image;
30	and
31	(c) the image depicts the commission of the crime against the victim
32	or physical injury suffered by the victim as a result of the commission
33	of the crime; or
34	2. acting as an agent of the actor who created an image in violation
35	of subdivision one of this section, he or she knowingly disseminates or
36	publishes such image.
37	Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the second degree is a
38	class B misdemeanor.
39	§ 250.72 Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the first degree.
40	A person is guilty of unlawful dissemination of a personal image in
41	the first degree when he or she commits the offense of unlawful dissem-
42	ination of a personal image in the second degree and:
43	1. he or she committed, participated in the commission of, or
44	conspired to commit the crime that resulted in such injury to such
45	victim; or
46	2. the victim suffered serious physical injury or death which is
47	depicted in the unlawfully disseminated image.
48	Unlawful dissemination of a personal image in the first degree is a
49	class A misdemeanor.
50	§ 2. The civil rights law is amended by adding a new section 52-d to
51	read as follows:
52	§ 52-d. Private right of action for unlawful dissemination or publica-
53	tion of a personal image. 1. Any crime victim depicted in a still or
54	video image which was unlawfully disseminated as provided in section
55	250.71 or 250.72 of the penal law shall have a cause of action against

S. 7211

1	such individual who disseminated or published such still or video image
2	without the consent of the person depicted in the image.
3	2. In any action commenced pursuant to subdivision one of this
4	section, the finder of fact, in its discretion, may award injunctive
5	relief, punitive damages, compensatory damages and reasonable court
б	costs and attorneys' fees.
7	3. This section shall not apply to the following:
8	a. the reporting of unlawful conduct;
9	b. the dissemination or publication of an image made during law
10	enforcement activities, legal proceedings or medical treatment;
11	c. images involving activities in a public setting or activities in a
12	commercial setting in which legal activities are being conducted; or
13	d. the dissemination or publication of an image made for a legitimate
14	public purpose.
15	4. Any such crime victim depicted in a still or video image which was
16	unlawfully disseminated as provided in section 250.71 or 250.72 of the
17	penal law, or such person's estate, may maintain an action or special
18	proceeding for a court order to require any website that is subject to
19	personal jurisdiction under subdivision five of this section to perma-
20	nently remove such still or video image; any such court order granted
21	pursuant to this subdivision may direct removal only as to images that
22	are reasonably within such website's control.
23	5. Any website that hosts or transmits a still or video image, view-
24	able in this state, which was unlawfully disseminated as provided in
25	section 250.71 or 250.72 of the penal law and which image is hosted or
26	transmitted without the consent of the person depicted in the image,
27	shall be subject to personal jurisdiction in a civil action in this
28	state to the maximum extent permitted under the United States constitu-
29	tion and federal law.
30	6. A cause of action or special proceeding under this section shall be
31	commenced the later of either:
32	a. three years after the dissemination or publication of such image;
33	or
34	b. one year from the date the plaintiff or petitioners discovered, or
35	reasonably should have discovered, such dissemination or publication of 36	such image.
37	7. Nothing in this section shall be read to require a prior criminal
38	complaint, prosecution or conviction to establish the elements of the
39	cause of action provided for by this section.
40	8. The provisions of this section are in addition to, but shall not
41	supersede, any other rights or remedies available in law or equity.
42	9. If any provision of this section or its application to any person
43	or circumstance is held invalid, the invalidity shall not affect other
44	provisions or applications of this section which can be given effect
45	without the invalid provision or application, and to this end the
46	provisions of this section are severable.
47	10. Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit, or to
48	enlarge, the protections that 47 U.S.C. § 230 confers on an interactive
49	computer service for content provided by another information content
50	provider, as such terms are defined in 47 U.S.C. § 230.
51	§ 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall

52 have become a law.
