3 an immigration bail business in accordance with the provisions of this 4 article, but no individual or entity shall be licensed to do such busi-

6 (c) Any person, firm, corporation, or other entity that violates this 7 section shall be subject to the penalty set forth in subsection (a) of 8 section one thousand one hundred two of this article.

9 (d) Any agreement entered into by an entity subject to this section 10 that is not authorized to do an immigration bail business in accordance 11 with the provisions of this article shall be void and unenforceable.

12 § 2. The insurance law is amended by adding a new section 2140 to 13 read as follows:

14 § 2140. Restrictions on insurance producers procuring immigration 15 bonds. (a) No insurance producer shall require the use of an electronic

37 waiving of the requirements of this section or otherwise in violation of

5 obtaining an insurance producer or immigration bond or for an immi-

10 firm, corporation, or other entity to recover any fee or compensation in 11 excess of the amount authorized pursuant to this section. The person, 12 firm, corporation, or other entity shall, in any action brought by an 13 indemnitor to recover any such overcharge, be liable for treble damages.

14 (d) Any agreement, or portion thereof, entered into requiring the 15 waiving of the requirements of this section or otherwise in violation of

22 part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment 23 shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the 24 legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid 25 provisions had not been included herein.

27 have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amendment
28 and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implementation 29 of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and
