AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to findings of the state board of parole necessary for discretionary release of incarcerated persons on parole

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph (A) of paragraph (c) of subdivision 2 of section 259-i of the executive law, as amended by chapter 130 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as follows:

(A) ~~[Discretionary release]~~ Release on parole shall ~~[not]~~ be granted ~~[merely as a reward for good conduct or efficient performance of duties while confined but after considering if there is a reasonable probability that, if such inmate is released, he will live and remain at liberty without violating the law, and that his release is not incompatible with the welfare of society and will not so deprecate the seriousness of his crime as to undermine respect for law]~~ to any incarcerated person appearing before the board who is eligible for release on parole, unless the parole case record demonstrates there is a current and unreasonable risk the person will violate the law if released and such risk cannot be mitigated by parole supervision. In making the ~~[parole release decision]~~ determination as to whether a person poses a current and unreasonable risk of violating the law if released, the procedures adopted pursuant to subdivision four of section two hundred fifty-nine-c of this article shall require that the following be considered: (i) ~~[the institutional record including program goals and accomplishments, academic achievements,~~ any and all evidence of rehabilitation and reform, including but not limited to selection for participation in a temporary release

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

31 confinement; and [(viii)] (vii) prior criminal record, including the 32 nature and pattern of offenses, adjustment to any previous probation or 33 parole supervision and institutional confinement. In considering whether 34 there is a current and unreasonable risk the person will violate the law 35 if released and such risk cannot be mitigated by parole supervision, the 36 board shall not base their determination solely or primarily on any or 37 all of the factors contained in clauses (v) through (vii) of this 38 subparagraph. The board shall explain in writing in detailed, individ-39 ualized, and non-conclusory terms the basis for a denial of parole, 40 including how the parole case record and the enumerated factors were 41 considered and weighed. The board shall provide toll free telephone 42 access for crime victims. In the case of an oral statement made in 43 accordance with subdivision one of section 440.50 of the criminal proce-44 dure law, the parole board member shall present a written report of the 45 statement to the parole board. A crime victim's representative shall 46 mean the crime victim's closest surviving relative, the committee or 47 guardian of such person, or the legal representative of any such person.
48 Such statement submitted by the victim or victim's representative may 49 include information concerning threatening or intimidating conduct
50 toward the victim, the victim's representative, or the victim's family, 51 made by the person sentenced and occurring after the sentencing. Such 52 information may include, but need not be limited to, the threatening or 53 intimidating conduct of any other person who or which is directed by the 54 person sentenced. Any statement by a victim or the victim's represen-55 tative made to the board shall be maintained by the department in the 56 file provided to the board when interviewing the [inmate] incarcerated

1 person in consideration of release. A victim or victim's representative 2 who has submitted a written request to the department for the transcript
3 of such interview shall be provided such transcript as soon as it
4 becomes available.

5 § 2. The board shall report quarterly in writing to the governor, the 6 temporary president of the senate, the minority leader of the senate, 7 the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the assembly, and to 8 the chairpersons of the assembly committee on correction and the senate 9 committee on crime victims, crime and correction on denials of parole.
10 Written reports shall include the number of individuals denied parole 11 release each month, the articulated reasons for each denial, the 12 assigned commissioners in each case and a record of their votes, and 13 demographic information on each applicant denied including race, sex,
14 facility, and crime of conviction. Reports shall exclude information
15 that would identify the individual. Reports required by this section 16 shall be made available to the public and posted quarterly on the 17 websites maintained by the board of parole.

18 § 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
