ant to a proprietary lease or occupancy agreement and established and delimited rights under such lease or agreement; and

- (c) such dwelling unit is not subject to the provisions of article two, article four, article five, or article eleven of the private housing finance law. For the purposes of this paragraph, "deposit or advance", as used in paragraph (a) of subdivision one-a of this section, shall not include any payments or advances that are part of the purchase price of the unit or shares.
- § 3. Paragraph (b) of subdivision 1 of section 238-a of the real property law, as amended by a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the general obligations law, the real property law, and the real property actions and proceedings law relating to excluding tenant-shareholders in cooperative housing corporations from certain housing provisions, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 5105-C and A. 350-C, is amended to read as follows:
- (b) A landlord, lessor, sub-lessor or grantor may charge a fee or fees to reimburse costs associated with conducting a background check and credit check, provided the cumulative fee or fees for such checks is no more than the actual cost of the background check and credit check or twenty dollars, whichever is less, and the landlord, lessor, sub-lessor grantor shall waive the fee or fees if the potential tenant provides a copy of a background check or credit check conducted within the past thirty days. The landlord, lessor, sub-lessor or grantor may not collect the fee or fees unless the landlord, lessor, sub-lessor or grantor provides the potential tenant with a copy of the background check or credit check and the receipt or invoice from the entity conducting the 27 background check or credit check. Notwithstanding the provisions of this paragraph, a cooperative housing corporation[, other than a cooperative housing corporation subject to the provisions of article two, article four, article five or article eleven of the private housing finance law, shall be permitted to charge a fee or fees to reimburse costs associated with conducting a background check and credit check in excess of twenty dollars, where the potential tenant would become a dwelling unit owner or shareholder of such cooperative housing corporation, provided the cumulative fee or fees for such checks is no more than the actual cost of such background check and/or credit check. Further, with regard to a cooperative housing corporation subject to the provisions of article two, article four, article five or article eleven of the private housing finance law, all such fees must be reasonable and approved by the agency supervising such cooperative housing corporation.
- § 4. This act shall take effect on the same date and in the same manner as a chapter of the laws of 2021 amending the general obligations the real property law, and the real property actions and 44 proceedings law relating to excluding tenant-shareholders in cooperative 45 housing corporations from certain housing provisions, as proposed in legislative bills numbers S. 5105-C and A. 350-C, takes effect.
