§ 480. Legislative intent. It is hereby found and declared that New 9 10 York state needs, as a matter of public policy, to cultivate a resource of commercial, industrial sites that are readily available to new busi-12 nesses, established businesses that are considering moving to the state, or existing businesses within the state that need additional sites to 13 14 remain or expand within the state. To expand and sustain economic growth 15 within the state, it is critical to consistently maintain readily available commercial, industrial sites to attract new business, or expand 16 existing businesses. Without a stable inventory of sites that are ready 17 18 or able to be developed in a timely manner for business use, the delay 19 in converting undeveloped sites capable of conducting business in 20 compliance with applicable regulations and ordinances may cause the 21 state to lose significant business opportunities that would benefit the 22 economic well-being of its citizens.

§ 481. Administration. In furtherance of these purposes, the depart-24 ment is hereby authorized and directed to:

25 (a) Establish the strategic site readiness fund ("fund") to provide
26 economic assistance for renovation, construction, or other improvements
27 to infrastructure to attract new businesses to this state, or expand
