Introduced by Sens. BRISPORT, COONEY -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Children and Families

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to establishing the universal basic income for transition-age youth pilot program; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 2 398-f to read as follows:

3 § 398-f. Universal basic income for transition-age youth pilot
4 program. 1. Subject to an appropriation by the legislature for this 5 purpose, the department shall administer the universal basic income for 6 transition-age youth pilot program with the goal of improving outcomes
7 for foster youth. The pilot program shall commence on January first,
8 two thousand twenty-three, and end on December thirty-first, two thou-9 sand twenty-six. Under the pilot program, a New York state resident who 10 ages out of foster care during the year two thousand twenty-three, 11 regardless of what age such child entered foster care, shall be eligible 12 for the program and shall receive a universal basic income of one thou-13 sand dollars per month for three years.

14 2. For purposes of this section, "universal basic income" means uncon-
15 ditional cash payments of equal amounts issued monthly to eligible indi-
16 viduals with the intention of ensuring the economic security of recipi-17 ents. To the extent authorized under federal law, the universal basic 18 income provided by this program shall not be considered income or 19 resources for purposes of determining eligibility to receive benefits or 20 the amount of those benefits under the following public social services, 21 programs, and financial aid:

22 (a) New York earned income tax credit;

23 (b) Medicaid, medicare or other health insurance programs which 24 receive federal or state support and factor in income for eligibility 25 purposes;

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD13146-02-2

1 (c) State and federal financial aid and college support programs,
2 including, but not limited to, all of the following:

3 (i) Grants from the state university of New York or city university of 4 New York;

5 (ii) Benefits provided to veterans of the armed forces of the United 6 States pursuant to Title 38 of the United States Code; and

7 (iii) Pell Grants (Subpart 1 (commencing with Section 1070a) of Title
8 20 of the United States Code).

9 3. (a) The department shall work with at least one independent,
10 research-based institution to identify existing, and establish addi-11 tional, outcome measurements. The department shall prepare and submit an 12 annual report to the governor and the legislature on the universal basic 13 income for transition-age youth pilot program. Such report shall include 14 information on outcomes for the foster youth served under the program, 15 models utilized, and measures specific to the objectives of the program.

16 (b) Notwithstanding any other law, the department may accept and 17 expend funds from nongovernment sources for the report, for a longitudi-
18 nal study of the universal basic income for transition-age youth pilot 19 program that is in addition to the report, or for both. The report shall 20 include, but not be limited to, the following information, with respect 21 to the period of evaluation:

22 (i) Starting income of the participant before receiving monthly 23 universal basic income payments under the universal basic income for 24 transition-age youth pilot program;

25 (ii) Geographic indicators, including county of residence, city, and 26 ZIP Code;

27 (iii) Employment status of the participant before receiving monthly 28 universal basic income payments;

29 (iv) Housing status of the participant before receiving monthly 30 universal basic income payments; and

31 (v) Additional descriptive and outcome indicators, as appropriate.

32 § 2. This act shall take effect January 1, 2023 and shall expire and 33 be deemed repealed January 1, 2028. Effective immediately, the addition, 34 amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the 35 implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be 36 made and completed on or before such effective date.
