

STATE OF NEW YORK

8227

IN SENATE

February 3, 2022

Introduced by Sen. JACKSON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Education

AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to directing a study on the feasibility of adjusting the compulsory attendance age of minors attending full time instruction

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 305 of the education law is amended by adding a new
2 subdivision 60 to read as follows:

3 60. On or before July first, two thousand twenty-three, the commis-
4 sioner shall conduct a study on the feasibility of adjusting the compul-
5 sory attendance age for when minors shall attend full time instruction
6 and deliver a report of the findings and recommendations based on such 7 findings to the governor, the temporary president of the senate, and the 8 speaker of the assembly. The commissioner shall consult with educators,
9 parents, and other stakeholders to conduct a study which shall include,
10 but not be limited to:

11 (a) the social, emotional, and educational appropriateness of the 12 state's compulsory attendance age for when minors shall attend full time
13 instruction;

14 (b) the appropriateness and feasibility of adjusting the age of 15 required attendance to start school in New York state to minors who
16 become five years of age after the first of September in any school
17 year; and

18 (c) the educational programs and services available to minors who
19 would otherwise be enrolled in prekindergarten pursuant to an adjustment
20 in the state's compulsory attendance age.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets
[-] is old law to be omitted.
