- 1 (f) "minor" shall mean any person in the state who has not attained 2 the age of thirteen.
 - (g) "platform" shall mean an application or website that serves as a base from which the interactive computer service is provided.
 - (h) "content" shall mean the textual, visual or aural information that is generated by a third-party or the operator.
 - (i) "tracked" shall mean to monitor a minor's activity on or off the operator's platform for the purpose of determining a user's identifiers.
- 9 (j) "identifiers" shall mean the information generated from tracking a 10 minor which assigns to them certain factors which are used for conveying 11 content to the minor.
 - 2. Upon request from a verified parent of a minor, an operator shall:
 - (a) provide the verified parent with digital or physical copies of all advertisements and other content which the minor was shown by the operator on the operator's platform that were shown solely based on the minor's identifiers; and
 - (b) provide the verified parent with the identifiers which the operator generated by utilizing the child's online activity whether that activity is tracked on or off the operator's platform.
 - 3. It shall be a defense to this section that the operator is unable to provide the information required in subdivision two of this section due to foreseeable or unforeseeable circumstances that prevent the disclosure of such information that is not the fault of the operator.
- 4. This section shall not be construed as imposing any obligation on an operator for disclosing the information required in subdivision two of this section to a verified parent during the period of time in which the operator did not have actual knowledge of the child's age.
- 28 § 2. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 29 have become a law.
