AN ACT to amend the New York state urban development corporation act, in relation to community advisory committees

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 7 and 8 of section 4 of section 1 of chapter 174 of the laws of 1968, constituting the New York state urban development corporation act, subdivision 7 as amended by chapter 655 of the laws of 1973 and subdivision 8 as amended by chapter 61 of the laws of 1975, are amended to read as follows:

(7) The corporation shall establish one or more community advisory committees to consider and advise the corporation upon matters submitted to them by the corporation concerning the development of any area or any project, and may establish rules and regulations with respect to such committees. The corporation or its successor shall publish and maintain a list of all community advisory committee members, and community advisory committee meeting agendas, materials, and minutes on its website. Meeting agendas and materials shall be posted on such website at least one business day in advance of community advisory committee meetings. All upcoming meeting times and locations shall be posted on such website at least one week in advance. Community advisory committee meetings shall be accessible for the public to view and attend live. The members of such community advisory committees shall serve, at the pleasure of the corporation, without salary, but shall be entitled to reimbursement for their actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, gener-
