AN ACT to amend the education law, in relation to the performance of medical services by physician assistants; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 6542 of the education law is amended by adding a new subdivision 2-a to read as follows:

2-a. Notwithstanding subdivision one or two of this section, a physician assistant licensed under this article may perform medical services without the supervision of a physician as appropriate to the physician assistant’s scope of practice, education and training where such physician assistant has practiced for more than three thousand six hundred hours.

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall have become a law and shall expire and be deemed repealed two years after such date.

EXPLANATION—Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [−] is old law to be omitted.
