30 disease, he or she lacks the mental capacity to contract or manage his 31 or her own affairs; ~~and~~ (n) concerning whom no good cause exists for 32 the denial of the license; and (o) who has not been listed on the federal 33 no-fly list or terrorist screening database operated by the federal 34 bureau of investigation. No person shall engage in the business of 35 gunsmith or dealer in firearms unless licensed pursuant to this section.
36 An applicant to engage in such business shall also be a citizen of the 37 United States, more than twenty-one years of age and maintain a place of 38 business in the city or county where the license is issued. For such 39 business, if the applicant is a firm or partnership, each member thereof
40 shall comply with all of the requirements set forth in this subdivision
41 and if the applicant is a corporation, each officer thereof shall so 42 comply.

43 § 3. Section 530.14 of the criminal procedure law is amended by adding 44 a new subdivision 3-a to read as follows:

45 3-a. Revocation or suspension of license upon a finding that the hold-
46 er of the firearm license is a suspected terrorist. Where the division 47 of state police finds that a holder of a firearm license is listed on 48 the federal no-fly list or terrorist screening database operated by the 49 federal bureau of investigation, the division of state police shall 50 immediately revoke the holder's license. The individual shall be noti-51 fied in writing within thirty days of the revocation.

52 § 4. Section 223 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 53 subdivision 3 to read as follows:

54 3. The superintendent shall search the federal no-fly list or terror-
55 ist screening database at least once each year and upon a finding that a
56 firearm license holder is on such a list, the superintendent shall imme-

1 diately notify all appropriate law enforcement agencies and shall direct
2 the state police to remove any and all such firearms until such time
3 that the individual is no longer on the federal no-fly list or terrorist
4 screening database.

5 § 5. Section 223 of the executive law, as amended by section 3-b of 6 part MM of chapter 54 of the laws of 2016, is amended to read as 7 follows:

8 § 223. Duties and powers of the superintendent of state police and of 9 members of the state police. 1. It shall be the duty of the superinten-10 dent of the state police and of members of the state police to prevent 11 and detect crime and apprehend criminals. They shall also be subject to 12 the call of the governor and are empowered to co-operate with any other 13 department of the state or with local authorities. They shall also 14 collect and analyze information relating to prevention and detection of 15 terrorist threats and terrorist activities throughout the state and 16 share all such information subject to paragraph (g) of subdivision two 17 of section seven hundred nine of this chapter among the division of 18 homeland security and emergency services and local, state, and federal 19 law enforcement agencies to ensure the coordination of appropriate 20 intelligence to assist in the early identification of and response to 21 potential terrorist threats and terrorist activities. They shall have 22 power to arrest, without a warrant, any person committing or attempting 23 to commit within their presence or view a breach of the peace or other 24 violation of law, to serve and execute warrants of arrest or search
25 issued by proper authority and to exercise all other powers of police 26 officers of the state of New York. Any such warrants issued by any 27 magistrate of the state may be executed by them in any part of the state 28 according to the tenor thereof without [~~indorsement~~] endorsement. But 29 they shall not exercise their powers within the limits of any city to 30 suppress rioting and disorder except by direction of the governor or 31 upon the request of the mayor of the city with the approval of the 32 governor. Any member of the rank of sergeant or above may take pre-ar-
33 raignment bail from any defendant in the amounts and under the circum-
34 stances and conditions that police may take bail.

35 2. The superintendent shall search the federal no-fly list or terror-
36 ist screening database at least once each year and upon a finding that a
37 firearm license holder is on such a list, the superintendent shall imme-
38 diately notify all appropriate law enforcement agencies and shall direct
39 the state police to remove any and all such firearms until such time
40 that the individual is no longer on the federal no-fly list or terrorist
41 screening database.

42 § 6. The superintendent of state police and the commissioner of crimi-43 nal justice services shall promulgate any regulations necessary for the 44 provisions of this act to take effect.

45 § 7. This act shall take effect immediately; provided however, the 46 provisions of this act shall not take effect until the superintendent of 47 state police receives approval to access the information on the federal 48 no-fly list or terrorist screening database from the relevant federal 49 agencies; provided further that the amendments to section 223 of the 50 executive law made by section four of this act shall be subject to the 51 expiration and reversion of such section pursuant to section 3 of chap-52 ter 428 of the laws of 1999, as amended, when upon such date the 53 provisions of section five of this act shall take effect; provided that 54 the superintendent of state police shall notify the legislative bill 55 drafting commission upon the occurrence of the enactment of the legis-56 lation provided for in this act in order that the commission may main-

1 tain an accurate and timely effective database of the official text of 2 the laws of the state of New York in furtherance of effectuating the 3 provisions of section 44 of the legislative law and section 70-b of the 4 public officers law.
