AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to actions or practices that establish or maintain a monopoly, monopsony or restraint of trade, and in relation to authorizing a class action lawsuit in the state anti-trust law

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as the "Twenty-
2 First Century Anti-Trust Act".

3 § 2. Legislative findings. The legislature hereby finds and declares 4 that there is great concern for the growing accumulation of power in the 5 hands of large corporations. While technological advances have improved 6 society, these companies possess great and increasing power over all 7 aspects of our lives. Over one hundred years ago, the state and federal 8 governments identified these same problems as big businesses blossomed
9 after decades of industrialization. Seeing those problems, the state 10 and federal governments enacted transformative legislation to combat
11 cartels, monopolies, and other anti-competitive business practices. It 12 is time to update, expand and clarify our laws to ensure that these 13 large corporations are subject to strict and appropriate oversight by 14 the state. The legislature further finds and declares that unilateral 15 actions which seek to create a monopoly or monopsony are as harmful as contracts or agreements of multiple parties to do the same and should be treated similarly under the law. After monopolies or monopsonies have been established, it is typically too late to repair or mitigate the damage which has been done. Accordingly, mere attempts to create monopolies or monopsonies through anti-competitive conduct should also be treated as actions contrary to the interests of the people of the state of New York and should be penalized accordingly. The legislature further finds and declares that effective enforcement against unilateral anti-competitive conduct has been impeded by courts, for example, applying narrow definitions of monopolies and monopolization, limiting the scope of unilateral conduct covered by the federal anti-trust laws, and unreasonably heightening the legal standards that plaintiffs and government enforcers must overcome to establish violations of those laws. The legislature further finds and declares that one of the purposes of the state's anti-trust laws is to ensure that our labor markets are open and fair. The legislature further finds and declares that anti-competitive practices harm great numbers of citizens and therefore must ensure that class actions may be raised in anti-trust suits.

§ 3. Section 340 of the general business law, as amended by chapter 12 of the laws of 1935, subdivision 1 as amended by chapter 893 of the laws of 1957, subdivision 2 as amended by chapter 805 of the laws of 1984, subdivisions 3 and 4 as renumbered by chapter 502 of the laws of 1948, subdivision 5 as amended by chapter 333 of the laws of 1975 and subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 31 of the laws of 1999, is amended to read as follows:

§ 340. Contracts or agreements for monopoly, monopsony, or in restraint of trade illegal and void. 1. Every contract, agreement, arrangement or combination whereby

A monopoly or monopsony in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce or in the furnishing of any service in this state, is or may be established or maintained, or whereby

Competition or the free exercise of any activity in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce or in the furnishing of any service in this state is or may be restrained or whereby

For the purpose of establishing or maintaining any such monopoly, monopsony, or unlawfully interfering with the free exercise of any activity in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce or in the furnishing of any service in this state any business, trade or commerce or the furnishing of any service is or may be restrained, is hereby declared to be against public policy, illegal and void.

2. (a) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to monopolize or monopsonize, or attempt to monopolize or monopsonize, or combine or conspire with any other person or persons to monopolize or monopsonize any business, trade or commerce or the furnishing of any service in this state.

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person or persons with a dominant position in the conduct of any business, trade or commerce, in any labor market, or in the furnishing of any service in this state to abuse that dominant position.

(i) In any action brought under this paragraph, a person's dominant position may be established by direct evidence, indirect evidence, or a combination of the two.

(1) Examples of direct evidence include, but are not limited to, the unilateral power to set prices, terms, conditions, or standards; the unilateral power to dictate non-price contractual terms without compensation; or other evidence that a person is not constrained by meaningful

1 competitive pressures, such as the ability to degrade quality without 2 suffering reduction in profitability. In labor markets, examples of 3 direct evidence include, but are not limited to, the use of non-compete 4 clauses or no-poach agreements, or the unilateral power to set wages.

5 (2) A person's dominant position may also be established by indirect 6 evidence such as the person's share of a relevant market. A person who 7 has a share of forty percent or greater of a relevant market as a seller 8 shall be presumed to have a dominant position in that market under this 9 paragraph. A person who has a share of thirty percent or greater of a 10 relevant market as a buyer shall be presumed to have a dominant position 11 in that market under this paragraph.

12 (3) If direct evidence is sufficient to demonstrate that a person has 13 a dominant position or has abused such a dominant position, no court 14 shall require definition of a relevant market in order to evaluate the 15 evidence, find liability, or find that a claim has been stated under 16 this paragraph.

17 (ii) In any action brought under this paragraph, abuse of a dominant 18 position may include, but is not limited to, conduct that tends to fore-19 close or limit the ability or incentive of one or more actual or poten-20 tial competitors to compete, such as leveraging a dominant position in 21 one market to limit competition in a separate market, or refusing to 22 deal with another person with the effect of unnecessarily excluding or 23 handicapping actual or potential competitors. In labor markets, abuse 24 may include, but is not limited to, imposing contracts by which any 25 person is restrained from engaging in a lawful profession, trade, or 26 business of any kind, or by restricting the freedom of workers and inde-27 pendent contractors to disclose wage and benefit information.

28 (iii) Evidence of pro-competitive effects shall not be a defense to 29 abuse of dominance and shall not offset or cure competitive harm.

30 (c) (i) The following conduct is per se illegal: the use of noncompete 31 clauses, restrictions on class and collective actions aside from those 32 prerequisites laid out in article nine of the civil practice law and 33 rules, and no-poach agreements. The conduct is per se illegal whether 34 the agreement is horizontal or vertical.

35 (ii) Any person who violates this section shall be civilly liable to a 36 covered employee or independent contractor for treble damages, attor-37 ney's fees, and costs, or alternatively, at the election of the covered 38 employee or independent contractor, statutory damages of two thousand 39 five hundred dollars per violation, including attorney's fees, and 40 costs.

41 (d) (i) The attorney general is hereby empowered to adopt, promulgate, 42 amend, and repeal rules, as such term is defined in paragraph (a) of 43 subdivision two of section one hundred two of the state administrative 44 procedure act, to carry out the purposes of paragraph (b) of this subdi-45 vision, including those considerations specified in the findings and 46 declarations of the legislature for this act.

47 (ii) Before any such rule shall take effect, at such time that the 48 attorney general is prepared to file a notice of adoption pursuant to 49 subdivision five of section two hundred two of the state administrative 50 procedure act, the attorney general shall transmit a copy of the rule in 51 its final form to the temporary president of the senate and the speaker
52 of the assembly and, in addition, shall provide any relevant information
53 regarding the need for such rule. Such proposed rule, or proposed repeal 54 of a rule, is subject to the denial by both houses of the legislature
55 and shall take the form of a resolution. Each house of the legislature 56 shall have sixty days following the transmission of such rule to issue denial by resolution or take no action. Such rule shall not take effect if both houses pass a resolution denying such proposed rule within the time prescribed by this subparagraph.

(iii) The attorney general shall issue guidance on how it will interpret market shares and other relevant market conditions to achieve the purposes of paragraph (b) of this subdivision while taking into account the important role of small and medium-sized businesses in the state's economy. The attorney general may issue other guidance with respect to paragraph (b) of this subdivision.

(iv) Nothing in this section shall be deemed to diminish the jurisdiction of the public service commission.

3. Subject to the exceptions hereinafter provided in this section, the provisions of this article shall apply to licensed insurers, licensed insurance agents, licensed insurance brokers, licensed independent adjusters and other persons and organizations subject to the provisions of the insurance law, to the extent not regulated by provisions of article twenty-three of the insurance law; and further provided, that nothing in this section shall apply to the marine insurances, including marine protection and indemnity insurance and marine reinsurance, exempted from the operation of article twenty-three of the insurance law.

~~[3-]~~ 4. The provisions of this article shall not apply to cooperative associations, corporate or otherwise, of farmers, gardeners, or dairy-men, including live stock farmers and fruit growers, nor to contracts, agreements or arrangements made by such associations, nor to bona fide labor unions, nor to the creation, production, and dissemination of a single expressive work that is copyrighted, including but not limited to, a streaming series, television programs and or motion pictures.

~~[4-]~~ 5. The labor of human beings shall not be deemed or held to be a commodity or article of commerce as such terms are used in this section and nothing herein contained shall be deemed to prohibit or restrict the right of workingmen, including employees and independent contractors, to combine in unions, organizations and associations, not organized for the purpose of profit, to establish or maintain union apprenticeship or training programs that may lead to any government-issued trade license, or to bargain collectively concerning their wages and the terms and conditions of their employment. Nothing in this section shall be deemed to prevent or create liability with respect to any actions to comply with article eight or nine of the labor law. A bona fide collective bargaining agreement, project labor agreement or any other agreement lawful under 29 U.S.C. 158(f), as amended, or any term therein, shall not be considered evidence of a violation or dominance under this section. Project labor agreement shall have the meaning specified in section two hundred twenty-two of the labor law.

~~[5-]~~ 6. An action to recover damages caused by a violation of this section must be commenced within four years after the cause of action has accrued. The state, or any political subdivision or public authority of the state, or any person who shall sustain damages by reason of any violation of this section, shall recover three-fold the actual damages sustained thereby, as well as costs not exceeding ten thousand dollars, and reasonable attorneys' fees. At or before the commencement of any civil action by a party other than the attorney-general for a violation of this section, notice thereof shall be served upon the attorney-general. Where the aggrieved party is a political subdivision or public authority of the state, notice of intention to commence an action under this section must be served upon the attorney-general at least ten days

1 prior to the commencement of such action. This section shall not apply 2 to any action commenced prior to the effective date of this act.

3 ~~[6.]~~ 7. In any action pursuant to this section, the fact that the 4 state, or any political subdivision or public authority of the state, or 5 any person who has sustained damages by reason of violation of this 6 section has not dealt directly with the defendant shall not bar or 7 otherwise limit recovery; provided, however, that in any action in which 8 claims are asserted against a defendant by both direct and indirect 9 purchasers, the court shall take all steps necessary to avoid duplicate 10 liability, including but not limited to the transfer and consolidation
11 of all related actions. In actions where both direct and indirect 12 purchasers are involved, a defendant shall be entitled to prove as a 13 partial or complete defense to a claim for damages that the illegal 14 overcharge has been passed on to others who are themselves entitled to 15 recover so as to avoid duplication of recovery of damages.

16 8. Any damages recoverable pursuant to this section may be recovered 17 in any action which a court may authorize to be brought as a class 18 action pursuant to article nine of the civil practice law and rules.

19 9. An arrangement, as this term is used in this article, includes, but 20 is not limited to, a contract, combination, agreement or conspiracy.

21 10. Premerger notification.

22 (a) Any person conducting business in the state which is required to 23 file the Notification and Report Form for Certain Mergers and Acquisi-24 tions pursuant to the Hart-Scott-Rodino Antitrust Improvements Act of 25 1976, 15 U.S.C. s. 18a (a), shall provide the same notice and documenta-26 tion in its entirety to the attorney general at the same time that 27 notice is filed with the federal government.

28 (b) The following classes of transactions are exempt from the 29 requirements of this section:

30 (i) acquisitions of goods or realty transferred in the ordinary course 31 of business;

32 (ii) the creation, production, and dissemination of a single expres-
33 sive work that is copyrighted, including but not limited to, a streaming 34 series, television programs and or motion pictures;

35 (iii) acquisitions of bonds, mortgages, deeds of trust, or other obli-
36 gations which are not voting securities;

37 (iv) transfers to or from a federal agency or a state or political 38 subdivision thereof;

39 (v) transactions specifically exempted from the provisions of this 40 article; and

41 (vi) such other acquisitions, transfers, or transactions, as may be 42 exempted under paragraph (f) of this subdivision hereunder.

43 (c) Any information or documentary material filed with the attorney 44 general pursuant to this subdivision shall be exempt from disclosure 45 under article six of the public officers law, and no such information or 46 documentary material may be made public, except as may be relevant to 47 any administrative or judicial action or proceeding.

48 (d) Any person, or any officer, director, or partner thereof, who 49 fails to comply with any provision of this subdivision shall be liable 50 to the state for a civil penalty of not more than ten thousand dollars 51 for each day during which such person is in violation of this section.
52 Such penalty may be recovered in a civil action brought by the attorney 53 general.

54 (e) In considering any transaction under this subdivision, the attor-
55 ney general shall consider such transaction's effects on labor markets.

56 (f) The attorney general is hereby empowered to:

2 (ii) exempt, from the requirements of this subdivision, classes of 3 persons, acquisitions, transfers, or transactions which are not likely 4 to violate the provisions of this article; and 5 (iii) adopt, promulgate, amend, and rescind other rules and regu-
6 lations to carry out the purposes of this subdivision.
