Introduced by Sen. THOMAS -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Banks

AN ACT to amend the financial services law, in relation to requiring certain disclosures in advertisements involving virtual tokens

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

- Section 1. Subdivision (a) of section 104 of the financial services law is amended by adding a new paragraph 6 to read as follows:
- (6) "Virtual token" shall mean any interchangeable or non-interchangeable unit of data that is stored on any blockchain ledger which shall include, among other digital units that the superintendent determines to be virtual tokens in accordance with this definition, cryptocurrencies, virtual currencies, digital assets and digital tokens, whether fungible or non-fungible. Virtual tokens shall not be construed to include any of the following:
- (A) digital units that: (i) are used solely within online gaming platforms; (ii) have no market or application outside of those gaming platforms; (iii) cannot be converted into, or redeemed for, fiat currency or virtual currency; and (iv) may or may not be redeemable for real-world goods, services, discounts, or purchases;
- 15 (B) digital units that can be redeemed for goods, services, or 16 purchases as part of a customer affinity or rewards program with the 17 issuer and/or other designated merchants or can be redeemed for digital 18 units in another customer affinity or rewards program, but cannot be 19 converted into, or redeemed for, fiat currency or other virtual curren20 cy; or
 - (C) digital units used as part of prepaid cards.
