4. Every operator or operator's agent of a place of entertainment, any licensee or other ticket reseller, or platform that facilitates the sale or resale of tickets shall disclose the total cost of the ticket, inclusive of all ancillary fees that must be paid in order to purchase the ticket, and disclose in a clear and conspicuous manner [~~the total price of the ticket and~~] the portion of the ticket price stated in dollars that represents a service charge, or any other fee or surcharge to the purchaser. 14 one of this act shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall be 15 deemed to repeal therewith.

16 PART C

17 Section 1. The arts and cultural affairs law is amended by adding a 18 new section 25.06 to read as follows:

24 charge and access to such tickets is not contingent upon providing any 25 form of monetary consideration.

26 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 27 have become a law; provided, however, that the amendments to article 25

52 25.23 of the arts and cultural affairs law made by section one of this

1 act shall not affect the repeal of such section and shall be deemed

14 charge by the operator or agents of the operator for special services, 15 including but not limited to, sales away from the box office, credit 16 card sales or delivery; and (b) nothing in this article shall be 17 construed to prohibit an operator or its agent from offering for initial 18 sale tickets by means of an auction.

19 2. A reasonable and actual cost for the physical delivery of tickets 20 may be charged by a seller or reseller based on the method of delivery 21 selected by the purchaser; provided, however, that no delivery fee shall 23 or tickets that may be printed independently by the purchaser.

24 3. In any prosecution under this section the attorney general shall 25 have concurrent jurisdiction with any district attorney and in any such 26 prosecution he or she or his or her deputy shall exercise all the powers 27 and perform all the duties which the district attorney would otherwise 28 be authorized to exercise or perform therein.
