STATE OF NEW YORK

9472

IN SENATE

June 1, 2022

Introduced by Sen. ADDABBO -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Disabilities

AN ACT to amend the education law and the social services law, in relation to requiring schools and daycare facilities to maintain evacuation plans for children with disabilities during a lockdown or emergency situation

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The education law is amended by adding a new section 4411 to read as follows:

§ 4411. Emergency evacuation plans for children with disabilities. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, it shall be the duty of every board of education or trustees of each school district and the city school district of the city of New York to establish and maintain an emergency evacuation plan for children with disabilities in schools.

2. Each emergency evacuation plan required pursuant to this section shall include, but not be limited to, the following elements:

(a) procedures for evacuating children with disabilities;

(b) a list of children attending each school within the district who have a disability and who would need assistance with evacuation during a lockdown or any other emergency situation; and

(c) the location and type of evacuation assistance devices or assistive technologies that are available within the building.

3. Each school district shall make the plan required pursuant to this section available upon request to:

(a) local law enforcement and fire safety personnel; and

(b) employees, parents of children, and other personnel as deemed necessary.

4. A copy of such plan shall be maintained at all times in a place easily accessible by law enforcement, fire safety personnel and school employees.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

5. On an annual basis, every school district shall update their emergency evacuation plan and provide the children, parents and school employees with notice detailing the updated provisions of such plan.

§ 2. The social services law is amended by adding a new section 390-m to read as follows:

§ 390-m. Emergency evacuation plans for children with disabilities in daycare facilities. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, it shall be the duty of every owner of a daycare facility operating in the state to establish and maintain an emergency evacuation plan for children with disabilities. For purposes of this section, "daycare facility" shall mean licensed and registered child daycare homes, programs and facilities.

2. Each emergency evacuation plan required pursuant to this section shall include, but not be limited to, the following elements:

(a) procedures for evacuating children with disabilities;

(b) a list of children attending the daycare facility who have a disability and who would need assistance with evacuation during a lockdown or any other emergency situation; and

(c) the location and type of evacuation assistance devices or assistive technologies that are available within the daycare facility.

3. Each daycare facility shall make the plan required pursuant to this section available upon request to:

(a) local law enforcement and fire safety personnel; and

(b) employees, parents of children, and other personnel as deemed necessary.

4. A copy of such plan shall be maintained at all times in a place easily accessible by law enforcement, fire safety personnel and daycare facility employees.

5. On an annual basis, every daycare facility shall update their emergency evacuation plan and provide the children, parents and facility employees with notice detailing the updated provisions of such plan.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately.
