

STATE OF NEW YORK

9481

IN SENATE

June 3, 2022

Introduced by Sen. BIAGGI -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the general business law and the civil practice law and rules, in relation to establishing a private cause of action for certain violations regarding semiautomatic rifles

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The general business law is amended by adding a new article
2 39-DDDDD to read as follows:

ARTICLE 39-DDDDD

SEMIAUTOMATIC RIFLES

Section 898-j. Definition.

898-k. Prohibitions.

898-l. Enforcement.

898-m. Private cause of action.

898-n. Defenses.

10 § 898-j. Definition. As used in this article, "semiautomatic rifle" 11 means any repeating rifle which utilizes a portion of the energy of a 12 firing cartridge or shell to extract the fired cartridge case or spent 13 shell and chamber the next round, and which requires a separate pull of 14 the trigger to fire each cartridge or shell.

15 § 898-k. Prohibitions. 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the 16 contrary, no person within the state shall manufacture or cause to be 17 manufactured, distribute, transport, or import into the state, or cause 18 to be distributed, transported, or imported into the state, keep for 19 sale, offer or expose for sale, or give or lend, a semiautomatic rifle, 20 except as provided in subdivision four of this section.

21 2. The prohibitions described in subdivision one of this section 22 applies whether or not the semiautomatic rifle is misused or is intended 23 to be misused in a criminal or unlawful manner.

24 3. Each instance of carrying, distributing, or selling a particular 25 semiautomatic rifle, or aiding and abetting thereof, shall be an inde-26 pendent, free-standing violation of this section.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD16001-01-2

1 4. Subdivision one of this section does not apply to the sale of a 2 semiautomatic rifle to, or the purchase, transport, importation, sale or 3 other transfer, or manufacture of, a semiautomatic rifle by, any law 4 enforcement agency, public entity that employs peace officers, or any 5 authorized law enforcement representative thereof, if that person or 6 entity is not prohibited by law from possessing a semiautomatic rifle, 7 including, without limitation, any state or local law enforcement agen-
8 cy, the department of corrections and community supervision, the depart-9 ment of corrections of any municipality, the military or naval forces of 10 this state or of the United States, a law enforcement or military agency 11 of another state, any federal law enforcement agency, or any foreign 12 government or agency approved by the United States Department of State, 13 for use in the discharge of the official duties of such entities.

14 5. This law is intended to be remedial, and therefore it shall be 15 retroactive.

16 § 898-l. Enforcement. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the 17 contrary, the requirements of this article shall be enforced exclusively 18 through the private civil actions described in section eight hundred 19 ninety-eight-m of this article. No enforcement of this article may be 20 taken or threatened by the state, a political subdivision, a district, 21 county or city attorney, or an executive or administrative officer or 22 employee of the state or a political subdivision against any person, 23 except as provided in section eight hundred ninety-eight-m of this arti-24 cle.

25 § 898-m. Private cause of action. 1. Any person, other than an officer 26 or employee of a state or local governmental entity in the state, shall 27 have a private cause of action against any person who does any of the 28 following:

29 (a) Knowingly violates section eight hundred ninety-eight-k of this 30 article.

31 (b) Knowingly engages in conduct that aids or abets a violation of 32 section eight hundred ninety-eight-k of this article, regardless of 33 whether the person knew or should have known that the person aided or 34 abetted would be violating such section.

35 (c) Knowingly commits an act with the intent to engage in the conduct 36 described by paragraph (a) or (b) of this subdivision.

37 2. An action pursuant to this section shall not be brought against a 38 federal government, state, political subdivision, or an employee of a 39 federal government, state, or political subdivision on the basis of acts 40 or omissions in the course of discharge of official duties.

41 3. All actions brought under this section shall not be subject to the 42 special procedural and substantive requirements described in subdivision 43 (g) of rule thirty-two hundred eleven or subdivision (h) of rule thir-
44 ty-two hundred twelve of the civil practice law and rules, or sections 45 seventy-a and seventy-six-a of the civil rights law.

46 4. Filing fees and motion fees shall be waived in all courts of this 47 state for any person or persons affirmatively bringing claims under this 48 section.

49 5. Any person defending an action under this section shall be required 50 to pay triple the applicable ordinary filing and motion fees.

51 6. If a claimant prevails in an action brought under this section, the 52 court shall award all of the following:

53 (a) Injunctive relief sufficient to prevent the defendant from violat-54 ing this article or engaging in acts that aid or abet violations of this 55 article.

1 (b) Statutory damages in an amount of not less than ten thousand 2 dollars for each separate violation of this article, and for each 3 violation of this article to which the defendant aided or abetted such 4 violation.

5 (c) Attorneys' fees and costs, including fees upon fees, at the high-6 est forum rates available in the state.

7 7. Notwithstanding subdivision six of this section, a court shall not 8 award relief under this section in response to a violation of this arti-
9 cle if the defendant demonstrates that such defendant previously paid 10 the full amount of any monetary award under subdivision six of this 11 section in a previous action for each violation of this article, or for 12 each violation of this article to which the defendant aided or abetted 13 such violation.

14 8. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, none of 15 the following is a defense to an action brought under this section:

16 (a) A defendant's ignorance or mistake of law.

17 (b) A defendant's belief that the requirements of this article are 18 unconstitutional or were unconstitutional.

19 (c) A defendant's reliance on any court decision that has been over-20 ruled on appeal or by a subsequent court, even if that court decision 21 had not been overruled when the defendant engaged in conduct that 22 violates this article.

23 (d) A defendant's reliance on any state or federal court decision that 24 is not binding on the court in which the action has been brought.

25 (e) Nonmutual issue preclusion or nonmutual claim preclusion.

26 (f) Any claim that the enforcement of this article or the imposition 27 of civil liability against the defendant will violate a constitutional 28 right of a third-party.

29 9. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, the 30 state, a state official, or a district, county, or city attorney shall 31 not intervene in an action brought under this section. However, this 32 subdivision does not prohibit a person described by this subdivision 33 from filing an amicus curiae brief in the action.

34 § 898-n. Defenses. 1. A defendant against whom an action is brought 35 under section eight hundred ninety-eight-m of this article does not have 36 standing to assert the right to keep and bear arms under the Second 37 Amendment to the United States Constitution as a defense to liability 38 under such section unless either of the following is true:

39 (a) The United States supreme court holds that the courts of this 40 state must confer standing on that defendant to assert the third-party 41 rights of other individuals in state court as a matter of federal 42 constitutional law; or

43 (b) The defendant has standing to assert the rights of other individ-44 uals under the tests for third-party standing established by the United 45 States supreme court.

46 2. A defendant in an action brought under Section 3 may only assert an 47 affirmative defense to liability under this section if:

48 (a) A person sued under paragraph (a) of subdivision one of section 49 eight hundred ninety-eight-m of this article reasonably believed, after 50 conducting a reasonable investigation, that the person aided or abetted 51 was complying with this article.

52 (b) A person sued under paragraph (b) of subdivision one of section 53 eight hundred ninety-eight-m of this article reasonably believed, after 54 conducting a reasonable investigation, that the person was complying 55 with this article or was aiding or abetting another who was complying 56 with this article.

1 § 2. Section 213 of the civil practice law and rules is amended by 2 adding a new subdivision 10 to read as follows:

3 10. an action pursuant to section eight hundred ninety-eight-m of the 4 general business law; the time within which the action must be commenced 5 shall be the greater of six years from the date the cause of action 6 accrued or five years from the time the plaintiff or the person under 7 whom the plaintiff claims discovered the cause of action, or could with 8 reasonable diligence have discovered it.

9 § 3. Severability. If any clause, sentence, paragraph, section or part 10 of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to 11 be invalid and after exhaustion of all further judicial review, the 12 judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the remainder thereof, 13 but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, para-
14 graph, section or part of this act directly involved in the controversy 15 in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

16 § 4. This act shall take effect on the thirtieth day after it shall 17 have become a law.
