IN SENATE

June 15, 2022

Introduced by Sen. MANNION -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the social services law, in relation to tasking the child care availability taskforce with evaluation of the office of children and family services' regulations regarding minimum supervision ratios based on group size for infants, toddlers and preschoolers

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature hereby 2 declares that many New Yorkers face the difficulty of living within a child care desert. New York State has begun the process of remedying the issue of the lack of child care through the creation of the child care availability taskforce. The legislature has an obligation to include under their jurisdiction an evaluation of regulations regarding staffing ratios set forth by the office of children and family services.

- § 2. Subdivision 3 of section 390-k of the social services law, as 9 amended by chapter 133 of the laws of 2022, is amended to read as 10 follows:
  - 3. The taskforce shall:
