IN SENATE

July 29, 2022

Introduced by Sen. JACKSON -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the workers' compensation law, in relation to removing the age cap for children receiving death benefits

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 1-b, 1-c, 1-d, 2, 2-a, 2-b, 3, 3-a, 3-b, 4, 4-a, 4-b, 4-c, 4-d and 6 of section 16 of the workers' compensation law, subdivisions 1-b, 1-c, 2, 3, 3-a and 4 as amended by chapter 168 of the laws of 1979, subdivisions 1-d, 2-b, 3-b, 4-c and 4-d as added by chapter 689 of the laws of 2007, subdivision 2-a as amended by chapter 174 of the laws of 1981, subdivision 4-a as amended by chapter 509 of the laws of 1985, subdivision 4-b as added by chapter 296 of the laws of 1990 and subdivision 6 as amended by chapter 322 of the laws of 2021, are amended to read as follows:

1-b. If there be a surviving spouse and no child of the deceased ~~[under the age of eighteen years and no child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled]~~, and the death occurs on or after July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, and prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, to such spouse forty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage; and where the death occurred prior to July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, to such wife (or dependent husband) thirty per centum of such wages during widowhood (or dependent widowerhood) with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage.

1-c. If there be a surviving spouse and no child of the deceased ~~[under the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution and no child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled]~~, and the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, to such spouse sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or

1-d. If there be a surviving spouse of an employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center rescue, who passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the proximate cause of death, and no child of the deceased ~~[under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such institution, and no child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled]~~, to such spouse seventy-five per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood, with two years' compensation, in one sum, upon remarriage. Where such death occurs, and the spouse is receiving the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act, the death benefit payable under this section shall be reduced in accordance with the provisions of table No. I in subdivision one-c of this section by five per centum of the spouse's share of the survivor's insurance benefits under the social security act for each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one hundred dollars; provided that in no case shall such reduction exceed fifty per centum of such spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act.

2. If there be a surviving spouse and a surviving child or children of the deceased ~~[under the age of eighteen years or a surviving child or children of any age dependent blind or physically disabled]~~, and the death occurs on or after July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, and prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, to such spouse thirty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage; and the additional amount of twenty per centum of such wages for each such child ~~[until the age of eighteen years or until the removal of the dependency of the blind or physically disabled child or children]~~; in case of the subsequent death or remarriage of such surviving spouse any surviving child of the deceased employee~~[, at the time under eighteen years of age or dependent through mental or physical infirmity]~~, shall have ~~[his]~~ their compensation increased to thirty per centum of such wages~~[, and the same shall be payable until he shall reach the age of eighteen years or until such dependent blind or physically disabled condition shall have been removed]~~; provided that the total amount payable shall in no case exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages. Upon statutory termination of compensation payments to all such children, the compensation of the surviving spouse shall be increased to forty per centum of such wages with two years' compensation, at such rate, in one sum, upon remarriage.

If there be a surviving wife (or dependent husband) and any of the aforementioned surviving children, and the death occurred prior to July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, to such wife (or dependent husband) thirty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood (or dependent widowerhood) with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage; and the additional amount of ten per centum of such wages for each such child ~~[until eighteen years of age or until the removal of the dependency of the blind or physically disabled child or children]~~; in case of the subsequent death or remarriage of such surviving wife (or dependent husband) any surviving child of the deceased shall have ~~[his]~~ their compensation increased to fifteen per centum of such wages ~~[until he shall reach the age of eighteen years or until such dependent blind or physically disabled condition shall have been removed]~~; provided that the total amount payable shall in no case exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages.

The board may in its discretion require the appointment of a guardian for the purpose of receiving the compensation of a minor child or a dependent blind or physically disabled child. In the absence of such a requirement by the board the appointment of a guardian for such purposes shall not be necessary.

2-a. If there be a surviving spouse and a surviving child ~~[under the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled]~~ and the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, to such spouse thirty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage; and thirty per centum of such wages to such child ~~[under the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled]~~; in the case of the subsequent death of such surviving spouse the surviving child shall have ~~[his]~~ their compensation increased to sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages ~~[and the same shall be payable so long as he is under the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an~~ ~~accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled~~; upon statutory termination of compensation payable to such child, the compensation of the surviving spouse shall be increased to sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages with two years' compensation, at such rate, in one sum, upon remarriage. Upon remarriage of such surviving spouse, the surviving child shall continue to receive thirty per centum of such wages. Where the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight and the spouse is receiving survivors insurance benefits under the social security act, the death benefit payable under this section shall be reduced by five per centum of the spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act for each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one hundred dollars provided that in no case shall such reduction exceed fifty per centum of said spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act as set forth in table No. I below.

2-b. If there be a surviving spouse of an employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center rescue, who passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the proximate cause of death, and a surviving child ~~[under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution, or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled]~~, to such spouse forty per centum of the average wages of the deceased during widowhood or widowerhood, with two years' compensation in one sum, upon remarriage;

1 and thirty-five per centum of such wages to such child [~~under the age of~~
2 ~~eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and~~
3 ~~attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institu-~~
4 ~~tion and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such~~
5 ~~institution, or a surviving child of any age dependent blind or phys-~~
6 ~~ically disabled~~]; in the case of the subsequent death of such surviving 7 spouse the surviving child shall have [~~his or her~~] their compensation
8 increased to seventy-five per centum of such wages [~~and the same shall~~ 9 ~~be payable so long as he or she is under the age of eighteen years, or~~ 10 ~~under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-~~
11 ~~time student in an accredited educational institution and such enroll-~~
12 ~~ment and full-time attendance is certified by such institution, or a~~ 13 ~~surviving child of any age dependent blind or physically disabled~~]; upon 14 statutory termination of compensation payable to such child, the compen-15 sation of the surviving spouse shall be increased to seventy-five per 16 centum of such wages with two years' compensation, at such rate, in one 17 sum, upon remarriage. Upon remarriage of such surviving spouse, the 18 surviving child shall continue to receive thirty-five per centum of such 19 wages. Where such death occurs, and the spouse is receiving survivors 20 insurance benefits under the social security act, the death benefit 21 payable under this section shall be reduced by five per centum of the 22 spouse's share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social 23 security act for each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in 24 excess of one hundred dollars; provided that in no case shall such 25 reduction exceed fifty per centum of such spouse's share of the survi-26 vors insurance benefits under the social security act as set forth in 27 table No. I in subdivision one-c of this section. If there be a surviv-
28 ing spouse of an employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a
29 World Trade Center rescue, who passed a physical examination upon 30 employment as a rescue worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condi-
31 tion that was the proximate cause of death, and two or more surviving 32 children [~~under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-~~

44 ~~institution, or a surviving child or children of any age dependent blind~~
45 ~~or physically disabled~~], share and share alike; in case of the subse-46 quent death of such surviving spouse the surviving children shall have 47 their compensation increased to seventy-five per centum of such wages
48 and the aggregate sum shall be payable, share and share alike[, ~~so long~~
49 ~~as they are under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twen-~~
50 ~~ty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an~~
51 ~~accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-time~~
52 ~~attendance is certified by such institution, or a surviving child or~~ 53 ~~children of any age dependent blind or physically disabled~~]. Upon remar-
54 riage of such surviving spouse, if there be two surviving children each 55 shall receive thirty-seven and one-half per centum of such wages, and if 56 there are surviving more than two children [~~under the age of eighteen~~

1 ~~years, or under the age of twenty three if enrolled and attending as a~~
2 ~~full-time student in an accredited educational institution and such~~ 3 ~~enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such institution, or~~
4 ~~a surviving child or children of any age dependant blind or physically~~
5 ~~disabled]~~, seventy-five per centum of such wages share and share alike.
6 Upon statutory termination of compensation payable to such children, the 7 compensation of the surviving spouse shall be increased to seventy-five 8 per centum of such wages with two years' compensation, at such rate, in 9 one sum, upon remarriage. Where the death occurs on or after September 10 eleventh, two thousand one, and the spouse is receiving survivors insur-
11 ance benefits under the social security act, the death benefits payable 12 under this section shall be reduced by five per centum of the spouse's
13 share of the survivors insurance benefits under the social security act
14 for each ten dollars of deceased's average weekly wage in excess of one
15 hundred fifty dollars; provided that in no case shall such reduction
16 exceed fifty per centum of said spouse's share of the survivors insur-
17 ance benefits under the social security act as set forth in table No. II
18 in subdivision two-a of this section.

19 3. If there be a surviving child or children of the deceased [~~under~~ 20 ~~the age of eighteen years or a dependent blind or physically disabled~~ 21 ~~child or children of any age]~~, but no surviving spouse then where the 22 death occurs on or after July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, and 23 prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, for the support 24 of each such child [~~until the age of eighteen years, or until the~~ 25 ~~removal of the dependency of such blind or physically disabled child or~~ 26 ~~children,~~] thirty per centum of the wages of the deceased, and where the 27 death occurred prior to July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, for 28 the support of each such child [~~until the age of eighteen years, or~~ 29 ~~until the removal of the dependency of such blind or physically disabled~~
30 ~~child or children]~~, fifteen per centum of the wages of the deceased;
31 provided that the aggregate shall in no case exceed sixty-six and two-
32 thirds per centum of such wages.

33 3-a. If there be a surviving child or children of the deceased [~~under~~ 34 ~~the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty three years if~~
35 ~~enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an accredited educa-~~
36 ~~tional institution and such enrollment and full-time attendance is~~
37 ~~certified by such institution or a dependent blind or physically disa-~~ 38 ~~bled child or children of any age]~~, but no surviving spouse then where 39 the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-
40 eight, for the support of such child or children [~~until the age of eigh-~~
41 ~~teen years, or under the age of twenty three years if enrolled and~~
42 ~~attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institu-~~
43 ~~tion and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such~~ 44 ~~institution or until the removal of the dependency of such blind or~~ 45 ~~physically disabled child or children]~~, sixty-six and two-thirds per 46 centum of the wages of the deceased. Where there are two or more chil-
47 dren, the compensation payable shall be divided among such children
48 share and share alike.

49 3-b. If there be a surviving child or children, of an employee of a
50 private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center rescue, who 51 passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue worker that 52 failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the proximate cause of 53 death, [~~under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty~~ 54 ~~three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an~~
55 ~~accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-time~~
56 ~~attendance is certified by such institution, or a dependent blind or~~ ~~physically disabled child, or children of any age,~~] but no surviving spouse then, where such death occurs, for the support of each such child ~~[until the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such institution or until the removal of the dependency of such blind or physically disabled child or children]~~, seventy-five per centum of the wages of the deceased. Where there are two or more children, the compensation payable shall be divided among such children share and share alike.

4. If there be no surviving spouse or child ~~[under the age of eighteen years, or dependent blind or physically disabled child of any age]~~, or if the amount payable to surviving spouse and to children ~~[under the age of eighteen years or such dependent blind or physically disabled children]~~ shall be less in the aggregate than sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of the average wages of the deceased, then where the death occurs on or after July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, and prior to January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, for the support of grandchildren or brothers and sisters under the age of eighteen years, if dependent upon the deceased at the time of the accident, twenty-five per centum of such wages for the support of each such person until the age of eighteen years; and for the support of each parent, or grandparent, of the deceased if dependent upon him at the time of the accident, forty per centum of such wages during such dependency; and where the death occurred prior to July first, nineteen hundred forty-eight, to such dependent grandchildren or brothers and sisters, fifteen per centum of such wages until eighteen years of age, and to such dependent parent or grandparent, twenty-five per centum of such wages during dependency. But in no case shall the aggregate amount payable under this subdivision exceed the difference between sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages, and the amount payable as hereinbefore provided to surviving spouse or for the support of surviving child or children.

4-a. If there be no surviving spouse or child ~~[under the age of eighteen years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution or dependent blind or physically disabled child of any age]~~, then where the death occurs on or after January first, nineteen hundred seventy-eight, for the support of grandchildren or brothers and sisters if dependent upon the deceased at the time of the accident, under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution, or blind or physically disabled grandchildren or brothers and sisters of any age, twenty-five per centum of such wages for the support of each such person until the age of eighteen years; or until the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time student in an accredited educational institution or until the removal of the dependency of such blind or physically disabled grandchildren or brothers and sisters, and such enrollment and full time attendance is certified by such institution and for the support of each parent, or grandparent, of the deceased if dependent upon ~~[him or her]~~ them at the time of the accident, forty per centum of such wages during such dependency. But in no case shall the aggregate amount payable under this subdivision exceed sixty-six and two-thirds per centum of such wages.

1 4-b. If there be no surviving spouse or child [~~under the age of eigh-~~
2 ~~teen years or under the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and~~
3 ~~attending as a full-time student in an accredited educational institu-~~
4 ~~tion and such enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such~~
5 ~~institution or dependent blind or physically disabled child of any age~~]
6 or grandchildren or brothers and sisters if dependent upon the deceased
7 at the time of the accident, under the age of eighteen years, or under 8 the age of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full time 9 student in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and 10 full time attendance is certified by such institution or disabled blind
11 or physically disabled grandchildren or brothers and sisters of any age,
12 then a sum of fifty thousand dollars shall be paid to the deceased's
13 surviving parents or if there be no surviving parents to the deceased's 14 estate.

15 4-c. If there be no surviving spouse or child, or children of an
16 employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center
17 rescue, who passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue
18 worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the prox-
19 imate cause of death, [~~under the age of eighteen years, or under the age~~
20 ~~of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student~~
21 ~~in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-~~
22 ~~time attendance is certified by such institution, or dependent blind or~~ 23 ~~physically disabled child of any age,~~] then where the death occurs on or 24 after September eleventh, two thousand one, for the support of grand-25 children or brothers and sisters if dependent upon the deceased at the 26 time of the accident, under the age of eighteen years, or under the age
27 of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student
28 in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-
29 time attendance is certified by such institution, or blind or physically 30 disabled grandchildren or brothers and sisters of any age, twenty-five 31 per centum of such wages for the support of each such person until the 32 age of eighteen years; or until the age of twenty-three years if
33 enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an accredited educa-
34 tional institution, or until the removal of the dependency of such blind 35 or physically disabled grandchildren or brothers and sisters, and such 36 enrollment and full-time attendance is certified by such institution and 37 for the support of each parent, or grandparent, of the deceased if 38 dependent upon [~~him or her~~] them at the time of the accident, forty per 39 centum of such wages during such dependency. But in no case shall the 40 aggregate amount payable under this subdivision exceed seventy-five per 41 centum of such wages.

42 4-d. If there be no surviving spouse or child, or children of an
43 employee of a private voluntary hospital killed in a World Trade Center
44 rescue, who passed a physical examination upon employment as a rescue
45 worker that failed to reveal evidence of a condition that was the prox-
46 imate cause of death, [~~under the age of eighteen years, or under the age~~
47 ~~of twenty-three years if enrolled and attending as a full-time student~~
48 ~~in an accredited educational institution and such enrollment and full-~~
49 ~~time attendance is certified by such institution, or dependent blind or~~
50 ~~physically disabled child of any age,~~] or grandchildren or brothers and 51 sisters if dependent upon the deceased at the time of the accident,
52 under the age of eighteen years, or under the age of twenty-three years
53 if enrolled and attending as a full-time student in an accredited educa-
54 tional institution and such enrollment and full-time attendance is 55 certified by such institution, or disabled blind or physically disabled 56 grandchildren or brothers and sisters of any age, then a sum of fifty

1 thousand dollars shall be paid to the deceased's surviving parents or if 2 there be no surviving parents to the deceased's estate.

3 6. If there be a person entitled to death benefits under the 4 provisions of this section, ~~[who shall be under the age of eighteen~~
5 ~~years, and]~~ who shall be an incarcerated individual of any institution
6 and a public charge upon the department of social services of the city
7 of New York, or any other department or body, the benefits allowed here-
8 under shall be payable to the said department of public welfare of the 9 city of New York or any other department or body to the extent of the 10 reasonable charges for the care and maintenance, during the continuance 11 as a public charge in said institution, of said beneficiary ~~[and until~~ 12 ~~the said person shall have attained the age of eighteen years]~~. Any sum 13 or sums remaining after the said payment out of the benefits shall be 14 distributed as provided by the other subdivisions of this section.

15 § 2. Subdivision 4 of section 305 of the workers' compensation law, as 16 added by chapter 788 of the laws of 1951, paragraph (a) as amended by 17 chapter 204 of the laws of 1969, is amended to read as follows:

18 (4) Death. Compensation shall be paid in the amount, and to and for 19 the benefit of persons, as follows:

20 (a) Actual funeral expenses in a reasonable sum not exceeding seven 21 hundred and fifty dollars to a person or persons and in manner as 22 provided in section sixteen subdivision one.

23 (b) If there be a surviving dependent wife or dependent husband and no
