Introduced by Sens. JACKSON, SALAZAR -- read twice and ordered printed, and when printed to be committed to the Committee on Rules

AN ACT to amend the correction law, in relation to who may visit local correctional facilities

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 500-j of the correction law, as amended by chapter 2 291 of the laws of 2009, is amended to read as follows:
3 § 500-j. Who may visit local correctional facilities. The following 4 persons may visit at pleasure all local correctional facilities: The 5 governor and lieutenant-governor, secretary of state, comptroller and 6 attorney-general, members of the legislature and their accompanying 7 staff as requested by the member of the legislature if the member 8 requests to be so accompanied, provided that such request does not 9 impact upon the local correctional facility's ability to supervise, 10 manage and control its facilities as determined by the sheriff of the 11 county, or in the counties within the city of New York, the commissioner 12 of such city, or in the county of Westchester, the commissioner of 13 correction of such county, judges of the court of appeals, justices of 14 the supreme court and county judges, district attorneys and every cler-15 gyman or minister, as such terms are defined in section two of the reli-16 gious corporations law, having charge of a congregation in the county in 17 which such facility is located. No other person not otherwise authorized 18 by law shall be permitted to enter the rooms of a local correctional 19 facility in which convicts are confined, unless under such regulations 20 as the sheriff of the county, or in counties within the city of New 21 York, the commissioner of correction of such city, or in the county of 22 Westchester, the commissioner of correction of such county shall 23 prescribe.
24 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
