AN ACT in relation to authorizing the village of Freeport, county of Nassau, to alienate and discontinue the use of certain parklands

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subject to the provisions of this act, the village of Freeport, located in the county of Nassau, acting by and through its village board and upon such terms and conditions as determined by such board, is hereby authorized to discontinue as parklands and alienate the lands more particularly described in section three of this act no longer needed for park purposes. The provisions of this act shall not extinguish any existing easements.

§ 2. The authorization contained in section one of this act shall take effect only upon the condition that the village of Freeport dedicate an amount equal to or greater than the fair market value of the parklands being discontinued towards the acquisition of new parklands and/or towards capital improvements to existing parkland and recreational facilities.

§ 3. The parklands authorized by section one of this act to be alienated are described as follows:
