Child care assistance shall continue to be guaranteed for such a family for a period of twelve months or may be provided by a social service district for a period up to twenty-four months, after the month in which the family's eligibility for public assistance has terminated or ended when such child care is necessary in order to enable the parent or caretaker relative to engage in work, provided that the family's public assistance has been terminated as a result of an increase in the hours of or income from employment or increased income from child support payments or because the family voluntarily ended assistance; that the family received public assistance in at least three of the six months preceding the month in which eligibility for such assistance terminated or ended or provided that such family has received child care assistance under subdivision four of this section; that the family's income does not exceed two hundred percent of the state income standard, or three hundred percent of the state income standard effective August first, two thousand twenty-two; and that the family income does not exceed eighty-five percent of the state median income. (b) A family eligible for child care assistance under paragraph (a) of subdivision one of this section shall suffer no break in child care services and shall not be required to reapply for such assistance so long as eligibility under subdivision three of this section continues.
