- § 2. The workers' compensation law is amended by adding a new section 118-a to read as follows:
- § 118-a. Effect of findings and determinations in subsequent 6 proceedings. With respect to an action for a workers' compensation claim permissible under this chapter, no finding or decision by the workers' compensation board, judge or other arbiter shall be given collateral estoppel effect in any other action or proceeding arising out of the same occurrence, other than the determination of the existence of an employer employee relationship.
 - § 3. Section 11 of the workers' compensation law, as amended by chapter 635 of the laws of 1996, the opening paragraph as amended by section 8 of part SS of chapter 59 of the laws of 2017, the fifth undesignated paragraph as added by chapter 49 of the laws of 1999 and the closing paragraph as added by chapter 392 of the laws of 2008, is amended to read as follows:
- § 11. Alternative remedy. $\underline{\mathbf{1}}$ The liability of an employer prescribed 19 by the last preceding section shall be exclusive and in place of any other liability whatsoever, to such employee, his or her personal repre-20 sentatives, spouse, parents, dependents, distributees, or any person 21 22 otherwise entitled to recover damages, contribution or indemnity, at common law or otherwise, on account of such injury or death or liability 24 arising therefrom, except that if an employer fails to secure the payment of compensation for his or her injured employees and their dependents as provided in section fifty of this chapter, an injured 27 employee, or his or her legal representative in case of death results 28 from the injury, may, at his or her option, elect to claim compensation under this chapter, or to maintain an action in the courts for damages on account of such injury; and in such an action it shall not be necessary to plead or prove freedom from contributory negligence nor may the defendant plead as a defense that the injury was caused by the negli-5 gence of a fellow servant nor that the employee assumed the risk of his or her employment, nor that the injury was due to the contributory 7 negligence of the employee. The liability under this chapter of The New York Jockey Injury Compensation Fund, Inc. created under section two 9 hundred twenty-one of the racing, pari-mutuel wagering and breeding law shall be limited to the provision of workers' compensation coverage to 10 11 jockeys, apprentice jockeys, exercise persons, and at the election of 12 the New York Jockey Injury Compensation Fund, Inc., with the approval of the New York state gaming commission, employees of licensed trainers or 13 14 owners licensed under article two or four of the racing, pari-mutuel 15 wagering and breeding law and any statutory penalties resulting from the 16 failure to provide such coverage.

For purposes of this section the terms "indemnity" and "contribution" shall not include a claim or cause of action for contribution or indemnification based upon a provision in a written contract entered into prior to the accident or occurrence by which the employer had expressly agreed to contribution to or indemnification of the claimant or person asserting the cause of action for the type of loss suffered.

An employer shall not be liable for contribution or indemnity to any third person based upon liability for injuries sustained by an employee acting within the scope of his or her employment for such employer unless such third person proves through competent medical evidence that such employee has sustained a "grave injury" which shall mean only one or more of the following: death, permanent and total loss of use or amputation of an arm, leg, hand or foot, loss of multiple fingers, loss of multiple toes, paraplegia or quadriplegia, total and permanent blindness, total and permanent deafness, loss of nose, loss of ear, permanent and severe facial disfigurement, loss of an index finger or an acquired injury to the brain caused by an external physical force resulting in permanent total disability.

For purposes of this section "person" means any individual, firm, company, partnership, corporation, joint venture, joint-stock association, association, trust or legal entity.

38 The liability under this chapter of the New York black car operators' 39 injury compensation fund, inc. shall be limited to: (i) securing the 40 payment of workers' compensation in accordance with article six-F of the executive law to black car operators, as defined in such article, whose 41 42 injury arose out of and in the course of providing services for a 43 central dispatch facility, as defined in such article, that is a regis-44 tered member of such fund, and (ii) any statutory penalty resulting from the failure to secure such payment. The liability under this chapter of 45 46 central dispatch facility, as defined in article six-F of the execu-47 tive law, that is a registered member of the New York black car operainjury compensation fund, inc. that shall be limited to remaining 48 a registered member in good standing of such fund and any statutory 49 penalty, including loss of immunity provided by this section, resulting 50 51 from the failure to become or remain a registered member in good stand-52 ing of such fund, except, however, that such central dispatch facility 53 shall be subject to the provisions of section one hundred thirty-one of this chapter and shall be liable for any payments for which it may become responsible pursuant to such section or pursuant to section four-55 teen-a of this [chapter] article.
