§ 3. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 11-602 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subparagraph 16 to read as follows:

- (16) the amount of any grant received through either the COVID-19 pandemic small business recovery grant program, pursuant to section sixteen-ff of the New York state urban development corporation act, or the small business resilience grant program administered by the department of small business services, to the extent the amount of either such grant is included in federal taxable income.
- § 4. Section 11-641 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subdivision (t) to read as follows:
- (t) Entire net income shall not include the amount of any grant received through either the COVID-19 pandemic small business recovery grant program, pursuant to section sixteen-ff of the New York state urban development corporation act, or the small business resilience grant program administered by the department of small business services, to the extent the amount of either such grant is included in federal taxable income.
- § 5. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 8 of section 11-652 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended by adding a new subparagraph 17 to read as follows:
- (17) the amount of any grant received through either the COVID-19 pandemic small business recovery grant program, pursuant to section sixteen-ff of the New York state urban development corporation act, or the small business resilience grant program administered by the department of small business services, to the extent the amount of either such grant is included in federal taxable income.
- § 6. Subparagraph 3 of paragraph (b) of subdivision 8 of section 11-652 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by section 1 of part D of chapter 60 of the laws of 2015, is amended to read as follows:
- (3) taxes on or measured by profits or income paid or accrued to the United States, any of its possessions, territories or commonwealths, including taxes in lieu of any of the foregoing taxes otherwise generally imposed by any possession, territory or commonwealth of the United States, or taxes on or measured by profits or income paid or accrued to the state or any subdivision thereof, including taxes paid or accrued under article nine, nine-A, thirteen-A, twenty-four-A, twenty-four-B of the tax law or under article thirty-two of the tax law as in effect on December thirty-first, two thousand fourteen;
- § 7. Subdivision 1 and the opening paragraphs of subdivisions 2 and 2-a of section 11-653 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by section 1 of part D of chapter 60 of the laws of 2015 and paragraph (a) of subdivision 1 as amended by section 20 of part Q of chapter 60 of the laws of 2016, are amended to read as follows:
- 1. (a) For the privilege of doing business, or of employing capital, or of owning or leasing property in the city in a corporate or organized capacity, or of maintaining an office in the city, or of deriving receipts from activity in the city, for all or any part of each of its fiscal or calendar years, every domestic or foreign corporation, except corporations specified in subdivision four of this section, shall annu-ally pay a tax, upon the basis of its business income, or upon such other basis as may be applicable as hereinafter provided, for fiscal or calendar year or part thereof, on a report that shall be filed, except as hereinafter provided, for taxable years beginning 56 before January first, two thousand sixteen, on or before the fifteenth day of March next succeeding the close of each such calendar year, or, in the case of a taxpayer that reports on the basis of a fiscal year, within two and one-half months after the close of each such fiscal year, and for taxable years beginning on or after January first, two thousand sixteen, on or before the fifteenth day of April next succeeding the close of each such calendar year, or, in the case of a taxpayer that reports on the basis of a fiscal year, within three and one-half months after the close of each such fiscal year, and shall be paid as herein-after provided.

- (b) [Intentionally omitted] A corporation is deriving receipts from activity in the city if it has receipts within the city of one million dollars or more in a taxable year. For purposes of this section, the term "receipts" means the receipts that are subject to the allocation rules set forth in section 11-654.2 of this subchapter, and the term "receipts within the city" means the receipts included in the numerator of the receipts fraction determined under section 11-654.2 of this subchapter. For purposes of this paragraph, receipts from processing credit card transactions for merchants include merchant discount fees received by the corporation.
- (c) A corporation is doing business in the city if (1) it has issued credit cards to one thousand or more customers who have a mailing address within the city as of the last day of its taxable year, (2) it has merchant customer contracts with merchants and the total number of locations covered by those contracts equals one thousand or more locations in the city to whom the corporation remitted payments for credit card transactions during the taxable year, or (3) the sum of the number of customers described in subparagraph one of this paragraph plus the number of locations covered by its contracts described in subparagraph two of this paragraph equals one thousand or more. As used in this subdivision, the term "credit card" includes bank, credit, travel and entertainment cards.
- (d) [Intentionally omitted] (1) A corporation with less than one million dollars but at least ten thousand dollars of receipts within the city in a taxable year that is part of a unitary group that meets the ownership test under section 11-654.3 of this subchapter is deriving receipts from activity in the city if the receipts within the city of the members of the unitary group that have at least ten thousand dollars of receipts within the city in the aggregate meet the threshold set forth in paragraph (b) of this subdivision.
- (2) A corporation that does not meet any of the thresholds set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision but has at least ten customers, or locations, or customers and locations, as described in paragraph (c) of this subdivision, and is part of a unitary group that meets the ownership test under section 11-654.3 of this subchapter, is doing business in the city if the number of customers, locations, or customers and locations, within the city of the members of the unitary group that have at least ten customers, locations, or customers and locations, within the city in the aggregate meets any of the thresholds set forth in paragraph (c) of this subdivision.
- (3) For purposes of this paragraph, any corporation described in paragraph (c) of subdivision two of section 11-654.3 of this subchapter shall not be considered.
- (e) [Intentionally omitted] At the end of each year, the commissioner shall review the cumulative percentage change in the consumer price index. The commissioner shall adjust the receipt thresholds set forth in this subdivision if the consumer price index has changed by ten percent or more since January first, two thousand twenty-two, or since the date that the thresholds were last adjusted under this subdivision. The thresholds shall be adjusted to reflect the cumulative percentage change in the consumer price index. The adjusted thresholds shall be rounded to 5 the nearest one thousand dollars. As used in this paragraph, "consumer price index" means the consumer price index for all urban consumers (CPI-U) available from the bureau of labor statistics of the United 7 8 States department of labor. Any adjustment shall apply to tax periods 9 that begin after the adjustment is made.

(f) If a partnership is doing business, employing capital, owning or leasing property in the city, or maintaining an office in the city, or deriving receipts from activity in the city, any corporation that is a partner in such partnership shall be subject to tax under this subchapter as described in the regulations of the commissioner of finance.

A foreign corporation shall not be deemed to be doing business, employing capital, owning or leasing property, or maintaining an office in the city, or deriving receipts from activity in the city, for the purposes of this subchapter, by reason of:

An alien corporation shall not be deemed to be doing business, employing capital, owning or leasing property, or maintaining an office in the city, or deriving receipts from activity in the city, for the purposes of this subchapter, if its activities in the city are limited solely to:

- § 8. Subdivision 1 of section 11-677 of the administrative code of the city of New York is amended to read as follows:
- 1. General. The commissioner of finance, within the applicable period of limitations, may credit an overpayment of tax and interest on such overpayment against any liability in respect of any tax imposed by [any of the named subchapters of this chapter or] this title on the taxpayer who made the overpayment, and the balance shall be refunded out of the proceeds of the tax. Such credit of an overpayment shall be applied before such overpayment, or any portion thereof, is paid to the state commissioner of taxation and finance pursuant to section one hundred seventy-one-m of the tax law.
- § 9. Subdivision h of section 11-2105 of the administrative code of the city of New York, as added by chapter 297 of the laws of 2019, is amended to read as follows:
- h. When the grantor or grantee of a deed for a building used as residential real property containing [ene- to four-family] up to four family dwelling units is a limited liability company, the joint return shall not be accepted for filing unless it is accompanied by a document which identifies the names and business addresses of all members, managers, and any other authorized persons, if any, of such limited liability company and the names and business addresses or, if none, the business addresses of all shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of any limited liability company or other business entity that are to be the members, managers or authorized persons, if any, of such limited liability company. The identification of such names and addresses shall not be deemed an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy pursuant to article six of the public officers law. If any such member, manager or authorized person of the limited liability company is itself a limited liability company or other business entity other than a 53 publicly traded entity, a REIT, an UPREIT, or a mutual fund, the names and addresses of the shareholders, directors, officers, members, managers and partners of the limited liability company or other business 55 56 entity shall also be disclosed until full disclosure of ultimate owner-
