IN ASSEMBLY

July 6, 2022

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Burke) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing the office of domestic terrorism

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. The executive law is amended by adding a new section 709-b 2 to read as follows:

3 § 709-b. Office of domestic terrorism. 1. There is hereby established 4 the office of domestic terrorism to monitor, analyze, investigate and 5 combat domestic terrorism, white supremacist and neo-Nazi infiltration
6 of government agencies. Such office shall be headed by a director
7 appointed pursuant to section seven hundred nine of this article.

8 2. The director shall ensure that the office established under this 9 section shall:

10 (a) have an adequate number of employees to perform the required
11 duties;

12 (b) have not less than one employee dedicated to ensuring compliance 13 with civil rights and civil liberties laws and regulations; and 14 (c) require that all employees undergo annual anti-bias training.

15 3. The office shall be responsible for investigating all levels of 16 government employees for extreme affiliations or beliefs that may be 17 threatening or incite violence against another person or persons in 18 whole or in substantial part because of a belief or perception regarding 19 the race, color, national origin, ancestry, gender, gender identity or 20 expression, religion, religious practice, age, disability or sexual 21 orientation of such person or persons, or damage to private or public 22 property associated in whole or in substantial part with such beliefs or 23 perceptions.

24 4. Nothing in this section, or any amendment made by this section, may 25 be construed to authorize the infringement or violation of any right 26 protected under the first amendment to the Constitution of the United 27 States or an applicable provision of state or federal law.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 § 2. Subdivisions 3, 4, 5 and 6 of section 709 of the executive law,
2 as amended by section 1 of part N of chapter 55 of the laws of 2013, are 3 amended to read as follows:

4 3. The division of homeland security and emergency services shall 5 consist of several offices including, but not limited to, the office of 6 counterterrorism, which shall have the powers, and be responsible for 7 carrying out the duties, including but not limited to those set forth in 8 section seven hundred nine-a of this article; the office of domestic 9 terrorism, which shall have the powers, and be responsible for carrying 10 out the duties, including but not limited to those set forth in section 11 seven hundred nine-b of this article; the office of emergency manage-12 ment, which shall have the powers, and be responsible for carrying out 13 the duties, including but not limited to those set forth in article 14 two-B of this chapter; the office of fire prevention and control, which 15 shall have the powers, and be responsible for carrying out the duties, 16 including but not limited to those set forth in article six-C of this 17 chapter and the office of interoperable and emergency communications, 18 which shall have the powers, and be responsible for carrying out the 19 duties, including but not limited to those set forth in section seven 20 hundred seventeen of this article.

21 4. As set forth in section seven hundred ten of this article, the 22 commissioner of the division of homeland security and emergency services 23 shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the 24 senate, and hold office at the pleasure of the governor. The directors
25 of the offices of counterterrorism, domestic terrorism, emergency
26 management, fire prevention and control, and interoperable and emergency 27 communications, and such other offices as may be established, shall be 28 appointed by, and hold office at the pleasure of, the governor and they 29 shall report to the commissioner of the division of homeland security 30 and emergency services.

31 5. The directors of the offices of counterterrorism, domestic terror-
32 ism, emergency management, fire prevention and control, interoperable
33 and emergency communications, and of such other offices as may be estab-
34 lished, shall, in consultation with the commissioner, have the authority 35 to promulgate rules and regulations to carry out the duties of their 36 office, including the establishment of fees necessary to compensate for 37 costs associated with the delivery of training and services.

38 6. The directors of the offices of counterterrorism, domestic terror-
39 ism, emergency management, fire prevention and control, interoperable
40 and emergency communications, and such other offices as may be estab-41 lished, shall have the authority to enter into contracts with any 42 person, firm, corporation, municipality, or government entity.

43 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 44 have become a law.
