IN ASSEMBLY

July 6, 2022

Introduced by COMMITTEE ON RULES -- (at request of M. of A. Rozic) -- read once and referred to the Committee on Consumer Affairs and Protection

AN ACT to amend the general business law, in relation to prohibiting price gouging with respect to fuel, energy, and transportation goods and services

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subdivisions 2 and 5 of section 396-r of the general business law, subdivision 2 as amended and subdivision 5 as added by chapter 3 90 of the laws of 2020, are amended to read as follows:

2. During any abnormal disruption of the market for goods and services vital and necessary for the health, safety and welfare of consumers or the general public, no party within the chain of distribution of such 7 goods or services or both shall sell or offer to sell any such goods or services or both for an amount which represents an unconscionably excessive price. For purposes of this section, the phrase disruption of the market" shall mean any change in the market, whether 11 actual or imminently threatened, resulting from stress of weather, 12 convulsion of nature, failure or shortage of electric power or other 13 source of energy, product recall leading to supply shortages, strike, 14 civil disorder, war, military action, national or local emergency, or 15 other cause of an abnormal disruption of the market which results in the 16 declaration of a state of emergency by the governor. For the purposes of 17 this section, the term goods and services shall include all goods and 18 services sold in or into the state that are (a) consumer goods and services used, bought or rendered primarily for personal, family or 19 20 household purposes, (b) essential medical supplies and services used for the care, cure, mitigation, treatment or prevention of any illness or 22 disease, (c) fuel, energy, and transportation goods and services, and [(c)] (d) any other essential goods and services used to promote the 24 health or welfare of the public. This prohibition shall apply to all 25 parties within the chain of distribution for any good or service that is 26 sold in or into the state, including any manufacturer, supplier, wholesaler, distributor or retail seller of goods or services or both [sold by one party to another when the product sold was located in the state prior to the sale]. Goods and services shall also include any repairs made by any party within the chain of distribution of goods on an emergency basis as a result of such abnormal disruption of the market.

5. The attorney general shall promulgate rules and regulations requir-7 ing the periodic public disclosure by actors in the chain of distribution for fuel sold in or into the state of the prices charged or 8 9 proposed to be charged for fuel. The attorney general may also promulgate rules and regulations requiring the periodic public disclosure by 10 actors in the chain of distribution for any goods or services sold in or 11 12 into the state of the prices charged or proposed to be charged for such 13 goods and services. The attorney general may promulgate such other rules 14 and regulations as are necessary to effectuate and enforce the 15 provisions of this section.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
