A. 1550 2

2. The report required by this section shall be filed within thirty days after entering into an agreement or arrangement of the type described in this section.

- 3. If there is any change in the information reported within subdivision two of this section, an amended report shall be filed by the employer within thirty days of the change.
- § 751. Receipts and disbursement report. Every person who, as a direct or indirect party to any agreement or arrangement, undertakes any activities of the type described in section seven hundred fifty of this article pursuant to such agreement or arrangement and who, as a result of such agreement or arrangement made or received any payment during the previous calendar year shall file a report with the commissioner. The report shall be filed within ninety days after the end of the calendar year.
- 15 § 752. Reporting exemptions. 1. Nothing contained in this article 16 shall be construed to require any person to file a report under this
 17 article unless he or she was a direct or indirect party to an agreement
 18 or arrangement of the kind described in this article.
 - 2. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to require any person to file a report covering the services of such person, unless directly connected to the activities described in section seven hundred fifty-one of this article, by reason of his or her:
 - (a) giving or agreeing to give advice to an employer; or
 - (b) representing or agreeing to represent an employer before any court, administrative agency, or tribunal of arbitration; or
 - (c) engaging or agreeing to engage in collective bargaining on behalf of an employer with respect to wages, hours, or other terms or conditions of employment or the negotiation of an agreement or any question arising thereunder.
 - 3. Nothing contained in this article shall be construed to require any regular officer, or employee of an employer to file a report in connection with services rendered as such regular officer, supervisor or employee to such employer; or an attorney who is a member in good standing of the bar of any state, to include in any report required to be filed pursuant to the provisions of this article any information which was lawfully communicated to such attorney by any of his or her clients in the course of a legitimate attorney-client relationship.
 - § 753. Penalties. 1. Any person required under section seven hundred fifty or seven hundred fifty-one of this article who fails to properly disclose information as required and in a manner specified by this article shall be subject to civil penalties to be enforced by the commissioner provided under this section.
 - (a) The civil penalties set forth in this section shall be imposed as follows: five thousand dollars for the first violation; ten thousand dollars for a second violation; and twenty-five thousand dollars for each violation thereafter.
- (b) A person who willfully violates this article shall be subject to a civil penalty of up to twenty-five thousand dollars for a first violation and fifty-thousand dollars for every violation thereafter. For purposes of this paragraph, the term "willfully violates" shall mean a person knew or should have known that his or her conduct was prohibited by this article.
- 2. Any penalties imposed under this section by the commissioner shall be appealable to the industrial board of appeals in accordance with article three of this chapter.

3. Nothing in this section shall limit the availability of other remedies at law or in equity for a violation of this article; and the civil penalty provided for in this section shall be in addition to and may be imposed concurrently with any other remedy or penalty provided for in this chapter.

- 4. Any fee or penalty assessed for a violation of this article shall be deposited into the department's fee and penalty account.
- 8 § 754. Severability. If any word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part of this article or the application thereof to any 9 10 person or circumstances shall be adjudged invalid by a court of compe-11 tent jurisdiction, such order or judgment shall be confined in its operation to the controversy in which it was rendered, and shall not affect 12 or invalidate the remainder of this article, but shall be confined in 13 14 its operation to the word, phrase, clause, sentence, paragraph, section, or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judg-15 16 ment shall have been rendered.
- 17 § 2. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 18 have become a law.
