AN ACT to amend the civil service law, in relation to enacting "the COVID-19 extra time for heroes act"

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. This act shall be known and may be cited as "the COVID-19 extra time for heroes act".

§ 2. The civil service law is amended by adding a new section 159-c to read as follows:

§ 159-c. COVID-19 emergency bonus time. 1. (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of this article or of any general, special or local law to the contrary, any person subject to the provisions of this chapter who is employed as a certified first responder to perform regular services as a healthcare worker in a region and/or county of New York state during phase one and/or phase two of the reopening plan for the state relating to the novel coronavirus disease state disaster shall be awarded five additional days of paid personal time off. Such additional time shall carry forward into calendar years two thousand twenty-one and two thousand twenty-two and shall be available for use for the later of two years after the effective date of this section or one year after the end of the COVID-19 declared state of emergency.

(b) A person eligible for additional personal time off pursuant to paragraph (a) of this subdivision shall only receive such additional time once.

2. As used in this section:

(a) "certified first responder" means:

(i) an individual who meets the minimum requirements established by regulations pursuant to section three thousand two of the public health law and who is responsible for the administration of initial lifesaving care of sick and injured persons; and

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
