Introduced by M. of A. PRETLOW -- read once and referred to the Committee on Transportation

AN ACT to amend the vehicle and traffic law, in relation to parking near a stop sign

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Subparagraph c of paragraph 2 of subdivision (a) of section 1202 of the vehicle and traffic law, as amended by chapter 679 of the laws of 1970, is amended to read as follows:

c. Within thirty feet upon the approach to any flashing signal, stop or yield sign or traffic-control signal located at the side of the roadway, unless a different distance is indicated by official signs, markings or parking meters. The commissioner shall ensure that notification of the distance requirement established by this section is conspicuously posted beneath any stop sign posted on a state highway;

§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the commissioner of motor vehicles may begin the installation of any signs required as a result of this act.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
