Introduced by M. of A. DINOWITZ -- read once and referred to the Committee on Aging

AN ACT to amend the elder law, in relation to the elder abuse shelter aftercare demonstration program; and providing for the repeal of such provisions upon expiration thereof

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The elder law is amended by adding a new section 225 to read as follows:

§ 225. Elder abuse shelter aftercare demonstration program. 1. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary and within amounts appropriated, the director shall establish a two-year, short-term aftercare demonstration program to be implemented by an existing center for elder justice, which provides shelter and other services for at risk older adults under the auspices of a facility established pursuant to article twenty-eight of the public health law, and located in Bronx county, New York city.

2. The scope of short-term aftercare services may be determined by the commissioner of health but shall at a minimum include case management services, financial counseling, and mental health services. Provision of services shall commence at the conclusion of the discharge process from the facility.

3. The center as defined pursuant to subdivision one of this section shall provide aftercare services as described in subdivision two of this section, and evaluate the effectiveness of the aftercare demonstration program in terms of preventing re-victimization, avoiding readmissions to the shelter, avoiding hospitalizations, and maintaining residence in a community setting. The center shall submit a report on findings to the director, the governor and the legislature no later than one hundred eighty days after the conclusion of the two-year demonstration program. Such report may also discuss the potential of utilizing the program
