§ 2. Subdivision 1 of section 2308-a of the public health law, as amended by section 38 of part E of chapter 56 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

1. The administrative officer or other person in charge of a clinic or other facility providing gynecological, obstetrical, genito-urological, contraceptive, sterilization or termination of pregnancy services or treatment shall require the staff of such clinic or facility to offer to administer to every resident of the state of New York coming to such clinic or facility for such services or treatment, appropriate examinations or tests for the detection of sexually transmitted diseases. For the purposes of this subdivision, the term "facility" shall include a correctional facility as defined in subdivision four of section two of the correction law.

§ 3. Subdivision 2 of section 140 of the correction law, as added by chapter 516 of the laws of 1995, is amended to read as follows:

2. Subject to the regulations of the department of health, routine medical, dental and mental health services and treatment is defined for the purposes of this section to mean any routine diagnosis or treatment, including without limitation the provision of gynecological services for female incarcerated individuals, the administration of medications or nutrition, the extraction of bodily fluids for analysis, and dental care performed with a local anesthetic. Routine mental health treatment shall not include psychiatric administration of medication unless it is part of an ongoing mental health plan or unless it is otherwise authorized by law.

§ 4. Subdivision 2 of section 505 of the correction law, as added by chapter 437 of the laws of 2013, is amended to read as follows:

2. Subject to the regulations of the department of health, routine medical, dental and mental health services and treatment is defined for the purposes of this section to mean any routine diagnosis or treatment, including without limitation the provision of gynecological services for female incarcerated individuals, the administration of medications or nutrition, the extraction of bodily fluids for analysis, and dental care performed with a local anesthetic. Routine mental health treatment shall not include psychiatric administration of medication unless it is part of an ongoing mental health plan or unless it is otherwise authorized by law.

§ 5. The correction law is amended by adding a new section 140-a to read as follows:

§ 140-a. Prenatal care. If a pregnant woman is confined to a state or local correctional facility, she shall be given prenatal care comparable to such care available to women in the community. Such care shall include regular check-ups throughout the course of her pregnancy and education on healthy lifestyle choices of benefit to the woman and her child. Pregnant women confined to such facilities shall also be given prenatal vitamins and a specialized diet tailored to provide their nutritional needs during pregnancy.

§ 6. The commissioner of corrections and community supervision, in conjunction with the commissioner of health shall promulgate such rules and regulations as may be necessary to effectuate the provisions of section five of this act.

§ 7. 1. The department of health, in cooperation with the department of corrections and community supervision, shall conduct a study of women's health care in prisons. Such study shall:

a. collect all available data relating to women's health care in prisons;

1 b. determine how often women in prisons are being seen by a medical
2 professional;

3 c. determine how long it takes for women in prisons to be seen by a
4 medical professional;

5 d. identify what issues women in prisons are most often being seen
6 for;

7 e. determine the outcomes of women in prisons being seen by a medical 8 professional; and

9 f. investigate anything deemed relevant by the commissioner of health
10 or the commissioner of corrections and community supervision for the 11 purposes of this study.

12 2. Upon completion of the study required by subdivision one of this 13 section, the commissioner of health, or his or her designee, shall 14 prepare a report to be given to the governor and the legislature which 15 shall include the findings of such study. Such report shall be filed
16 within one year of the effective date of this act, unless the commis-
17 sioner of health requests in writing, an extension of time.

18 3. All other departments or agencies of the state or subdivisions
19 thereof, and local governments shall, at the request of the commissioner
20 of health or the commissioner of corrections and community supervision,
21 provide expertise, assistance, and data that will enable such commis-
22 sioner to carry out his or her powers and duties.

23 § 8. This act shall take effect immediately; provided, however, that
24 section five of this act shall take effect on the one hundred eightieth
25 day after it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addi-
26 tion, amendment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for 27 the implementation of this act on its effective date are authorized to 28 be made and completed on or before such effective date.
