Introduced by M. of A. JEAN-PIERRE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Operations

AN ACT to amend the executive law, in relation to establishing a toll-free hotline for complainants of housing discrimination and providing for the discretionary revocation or suspension of an individual's real estate license upon a finding of unlawful housing discrimination

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Section 295 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 2 subdivision 17 to read as follows:

3 17. To establish a toll-free hotline to provide individuals with 4 complaints of housing discrimination counsel and assistance. The divi-5 sion shall operate this hotline during regular business hours and 6 disseminate information about this hotline in order to ensure public 7 knowledge of the hotline, including having every office engaged in the 8 practice of real estate transaction conspicuously post the hotline
9 number in the public area of its office.

10 § 2. Section 297 of the executive law is amended by adding a new 11 subdivision 11 to read as follows:

12 11. If, upon all the evidence at a hearing pursuant to subdivision
13 four of this section, the division shall find that a real estate broker
14 or salesperson has engaged in any unlawful housing discrimination pursu-15 ant to section two hundred ninety-six of this article, the division may 16 revoke the license of such real estate broker or salesperson or suspend 17 the same, for such a period as the division shall deem proper.

18 § 3. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 19 it shall have become a law. Effective immediately, the addition, amend-20 ment and/or repeal of any rule or regulation necessary for the implemen-21 tation of this act on its effective date are authorized to be made and 22 completed on or before such effective date.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.
