surcharges, certain fees, restitution, reparation or forfeitures from the earnings of prisoners (Part F); and in relation to vacating all existing unpaid surcharges, DNA databank fees, crime victim assistance fees, sexual offender registration fees, or supplemental sex offender victim fees (Part G)

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. This act enacts into law major components of legislation
2 relating to ending the unfair financial burdens imposed on defendants in 3 criminal, vehicle and traffic, or other types of criminal or quasi-criminal 4 matters by the existence of mandatory court surcharges and fees,
5 mandatory minimum fines and mandatory probation or parole fees. This 6 act further enacts into law procedures by which courts would be required
7 to engage in an individualized assessment of a person's financial ability 8 to pay a fine prior to imposing a fine, eliminates the availability
9 of incarceration as a remedy for a failure to pay a fine, and vacates 10 all existing warrants or unsatisfied civil judgments issued solely based 11 on a person's failure to timely pay a fine, surcharge, or fee. Each 12 component is wholly contained within a Part identified as Parts A 13 through G. The effective date for each particular provision contained 14 within such Part is set forth in the last section of such Part. Any 15 provision in any section contained within a Part, including the effective 16 date of the Part, which makes reference to a section "of this act", 17 when used in connection with that particular component, shall be deemed 18 to mean and refer to the corresponding section of the Part in which it
19 is found. Section four of this act sets forth the general effective 20 date of this act.

21 § 2. Legislative intent. The legislative intent of this act is to end 22 the inequitable financial burdens placed on defendants by the previously 23 enacted statutory provisions which have authorized or mandated the imposition 24 of surcharges, fees, and/or mandatory minimum fines, which have 25 had a disparate impact on poor defendants, people of color, and those 26 who lack access to the significant financial resources necessary in 27 order to satisfy the imposition of surcharges, fees, and fines, and 28 which have also contributed to mass incarceration in New York state. The 29 legislative intent is also to end New York's regressive reliance on 30 generating governmental revenue by imposing surcharges, fees, and fines 31 on those least able to pay.

The court shall require an initial payment of such portion of the reduced filing fee as the incarcerated individual can reasonably afford or shall authorize no initial payment of the fee if exceptional circumstances render the incarcerated individual unable to pay any fee; provided however, that the difference between the amount of the reduced filing fee and the amount paid by the incarcerated individual in the initial partial payment shall be assessed against the incarcerated individual as an outstanding obligation to be collected either by the superintendent or the municipal official of the facility at which the incarcerated individual is confined, as the case may be~~[, in the same manner that mandatory surcharges are collected as provided for in subdivision five of section 60.35 of the penal law]~~. 16 conviction of any crime to pay any fee, including but not limited to an 17 administrative fee, supervision fee, monitoring fee, testing fee, or
