2 A. 5630-a, are amended to read as follows:

3 Acceptance of and reliance upon acknowledged and witnessed statutory 4 short form power of attorney. 1. (a) For purposes of this section, 5 "acknowledged" means purportedly verified before a notary public or 6 other individual authorized to take acknowledgements. For purposes of 7 this section, "witnessed" means purportedly witnessed by two persons who 8 are not named in the instrument as agents or as permissible recipients 9 of gifts.

10 (b) A person that in good faith accepts an acknowledged and witnessed 11 power of attorney without actual knowledge that the signature is not 12 genuine may rely upon the presumption that the signature is genuine.

13 (c) A person that in good faith accepts an acknowledged and witnessed 14 power of attorney without actual knowledge that the power of attorney is 15 void, invalid, or terminated, that the purported agent's authority is 16 void, invalid, or terminated, or that the agent is exceeding or improv-
17 erly exercising the agent's authority may rely upon the power of attor-
18 ney as if the power of attorney were genuine, valid and still in effect, 19 the agent's authority were genuine, valid and still in effect, and the 20 agent had not exceeded and had properly exercised the authority.

21 (d) A person that is asked to accept an acknowledged and witnessed
22 power of attorney may request, and rely upon, without further investi-
23 gation:

24 (1) an agent's certification under penalty of perjury of any factual 25 matter concerning the principal, agent or power of attorney; and

26 (2) an opinion of counsel as to any matter of law concerning the power 27 of attorney if the person making the request provides in a writing or 28 other record the reason for the request.

29 (e) An opinion of counsel requested under this section must be 30 provided at the principal's expense unless the request is made more than 31 ten business days after the power of attorney is presented for accept-32 ance.

33 (f) For purposes of this section, a person that conducts activities
34 through employees is without actual knowledge of a fact relating to a 35 power of attorney, a principal, or an agent if the employee conducting 36 the transaction involving the power of attorney is without actual know-37 ledge of the fact after making reasonable inquiry with respect thereto.

38 3. (a) Not later than the tenth business day after presentation of an 39 original or attorney certified copy of a statutory short form power of 40 attorney properly executed in accordance with section 5-1501B of this 41 title or in accordance with the laws in effect at the time of its 42 execution to a third party for acceptance, such third party shall either 43 (a) honor the statutory short form power of attorney, or (b) reject the 44 statutory short form power of attorney in a writing that sets forth the 45 reasons for such rejection, which writing shall be sent to the principal 46 and the agent at the addresses on the power of attorney and such other 47 addresses as provided by the principal or the agent, or (c) request the 48 agent to execute an acknowledged affidavit pursuant to subdivision seven 49 of this section stating that the power of attorney is in full force and 50 effect if the statutory short form power of attorney was not submitted 51 for acceptance together with such an acknowledged affidavit. Such 52 reasons for rejection may include, but not be limited to non-conforming 53 form, missing or wrong signature, invalid notarization, or unacceptable 54 identification. In the event that the statutory short form power of 55 attorney presented is not an original or attorney certified copy, as 56 part of the initial rejection, such short form power of attorney may be

1 rejected for such reason, provided, however, in explaining the reason 2 for rejecting the short form power of attorney, the third party shall 3 also identify such other provisions of the short form power of attorney, 4 if any, that would otherwise constitute cause for rejection of the stat-
5 utory short form power of attorney. If the third party initially rejects 6 the statutory short form power of attorney in a writing that sets forth 7 the reasons for such rejection, the third party shall within seven busi-8 ness days after receipt of a writing in response to the reasons for such 9 rejection (i) honor the statutory short form power of attorney, or (ii)
10 finally reject the statutory short form power of attorney in a writing 11 that sets forth the reasons for such rejection. Such writing shall be 12 sent to the address provided on the power of attorney, to the address of 13 the agent, if any, and may also be sent to such other address as shall 14 be provided on the account documents, or to the address of the attorney 15 as provided in an opinion of counsel pursuant to this section. If the 16 third party requests the agent to execute such an acknowledged affida-17 vit, the third party shall honor such statutory short form power of 18 attorney within seven business days after receipt by the third party of 19 an acknowledged affidavit which complies with the provisions of subdivi-20 sion seven of this section, stating that the power of attorney is in 21 full force and effect unless reasonable cause exists as described in 22 paragraph (a) of subdivision two of this section. For the purposes of 23 this subdivision, notice shall be considered delivered at the time such 24 notice is mailed and the time requirements in which to honor or reject 25 the statutory short form power of attorney or request the agent to 26 execute an acknowledged affidavit shall not apply to the department of 27 audit and control [ex], a public retirement system of the state as 28 defined in subdivision six of section one hundred fifty-two of the 29 retirement and social security law, or the department of health, includ-30 ing social services districts, in the administration of the medical 31 assistance "Medicaid" program pursuant to title XIX of the federal 32 social security act or other public health insurance programs.

33 (b) Notice to the agent as required by paragraph (a) of this subdivi-
34 sion shall not be sent until after a determination is made by adult 35 protective services if the reason for rejection is a reason set forth in 36 subdivision two of this section and is otherwise prohibited by law or 37 regulation.

38 § 3. Section 5-1513 of the general obligations law, as amended by a 39 chapter of the laws of 2020 amending the general obligations law relat-
40 ing to reforming the statutory short form and other powers of attorney 41 for purposes of financial and estate planning, as proposed in legisla-42 tive bills numbers S. 3923-a and A. 5630-a, is amended to read as 43 follows:

44 § 5-1513. Statutory short form power of attorney. The use of the 45 following form, or one which substantially conforms to the following 46 form, in the creation of a power of attorney is lawful, and, when used, 47 and executed in accordance with subdivision one of section 5-1501B of 48 this title, it shall be construed as a statutory short form power of 49 attorney in accordance with the provisions of this title; provided 50 however, that any section indicated as "Optional" which is not used may 51 be omitted and replaced by the words "Intentionally Omitted":

52 "POWER OF ATTORNEY

53 NEW YORK STATUTORY SHORT FORM

54 (a) CAUTION TO THE PRINCIPAL: Your Power of Attorney is an important 55 document. As the "principal," you give the person whom you choose (your

"agent") authority to spend your money and sell or dispose of your property during your lifetime without telling you. You do not lose your authority to act even though you have given your agent similar authority.

When your agent exercises this authority, he or she must act according to any instructions you have provided or, where there are no specific instructions, in your best interest. "Important Information for the Agent" at the end of this document describes your agent's responsibilities.

Your agent can act on your behalf only after signing the Power of Attorney before a notary public.

You can request information from your agent at any time. If you are revoking a prior Power of Attorney, you should provide written notice of the revocation to your prior agent(s) and to any third parties who may have acted upon it, including the financial institutions where your accounts are located.

You can revoke or terminate your Power of Attorney at any time for any reason as long as you are of sound mind. If you are no longer of sound mind, a court can remove an agent for acting improperly.

Your agent cannot make health care decisions for you. You may execute a "Health Care Proxy" to do this.

The law governing Powers of Attorney is contained in the New York General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. This law is available at a law library, or online through the New York State Senate or Assembly websites, www.nysenate.gov or www.nyassembly.gov.

If there is anything about this document that you do not understand, you should ask a lawyer of your own choosing to explain it to you.

21 else or make gifts to yourself or anyone else unless the principal has 22 specifically granted you that authority in the modifications section of 23 this document or a Non-Statutory Power of Attorney. If you have that 24 authority, you must act according to any instructions of the principal 25 or, where there are no such instructions, in the principal's best inter-26 est. You may resign by giving written notice to the principal and to any 27 co-agent, successor agent, monitor if one has been named in this docu-28 ment, or the principal's guardian if one has been appointed. If there is 29 anything about this document or your responsibilities that you do not 30 understand, you should seek legal advice.

31 Liability of agent:

32 The meaning of the authority given to you is defined in New York's 33 General Obligations Law, Article 5, Title 15. If it is found that you
