AN ACT to amend the civil rights law, in relation to the imposition of penalties and remedies in suits brought for the vindication of civil rights or human rights; and to repeal section 24 of the correction law relating thereto

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1 Section 1. Article 10 and sections 100 and 101 of the civil rights
2 law, as renumbered by chapter 263 of the laws of 2019, are renumbered 3 article 11 and sections 110 and 111 and a new article 10 is added to 4 read as follows:

5 ARTICLE 10
6 PENALTIES AND REMEDIES

7 Section 100. Penalties and remedies.

8 § 100. Penalties and remedies. 1. Every person or the state, its 9 subdivisions, agencies, public authorities, and any other affiliated 10 entities, and all municipal entities in this state, including but not 11 limited to counties, school districts, towns, and villages who, is 12 acting or which acts under color of any statute, ordinance, regulation, 13 custom, or usage, of this state, subjects, or causes to be subjected,
14 any citizen of this state or other person within the jurisdiction there-15 of to the deprivation of any rights, privileges, or immunities secured 16 by the constitution and laws of this state, shall be liable to the party
17 injured in an action at law, suit in equity, or other proper proceeding

1 for redress, except that in any action brought against a judicial offi-
2 cer for an act or omission taken in such officer's judicial capacity 3 such officer shall not be held liable unless such action was clearly in 4 excess of such officer's jurisdiction.

5 2. The supreme court shall have jurisdiction over all suits brought 6 for the vindication of civil rights as provided in subdivision one of 7 this section. The parties in an action brought pursuant to this section 8 shall have the right to a jury trial.

9 3. (a) In any action or proceeding to enforce this section or the 10 human rights law, the court shall award the prevailing party, other than 11 the state, a reasonable attorney's fee as part of the costs.

12 (b) In awarding an attorney's fee under paragraph (a) of this subdivi-13 sion in any action or proceeding to enforce a provision of this article, 14 the court shall include reasonable expert fees as part of the attorney's 15 fee.

16 4. This article shall displace any jurisdiction currently existing in 17 the courts or administrative agencies of this state and shall be the 18 exclusive remedy for the type of injury referred to in this section.

19 5. In interpreting this section, the courts may, except as set forth 20 herein, consider the fundamental principles already enunciated by the 21 federal courts in interpreting 42 U.S.C. §§ 1983 and 1988, which are the 22 parallel federal civil rights laws, except as indicated in subdivisions 23 six and seven of this section.

24 6. The state hereby waives its sovereign immunity and consents on 25 behalf of itself, its subdivisions, agencies, public authorities, and 26 any other affiliated entity to suit as provided herein. The doctrine of 27 qualified immunity is hereby abolished and shall not be asserted as a 28 defense to any action arising under this section, unless specifically 29 set forth in this section.

30 7. The state, its subdivisions, agencies, public authorities, and any 31 other affiliated entities, and all municipal entities in this state, 32 including but not limited to counties, school districts, towns, and 33 villages, shall be liable in respondent superior for the actions of any 34 person or entity committing constitutional violations as referred to in 35 subdivision one of this section. Any act committed while on the prem-
36 ises of the employer or using equipment or an instrumentality provided 37 by the employer shall be considered within the scope of employment.

38 § 2. Section 24 of the correction law is REPEALED.

39 § 3. This act shall take effect on the ninetieth day after it shall 40 have become a law.
