MEDICAL RESPITE PROGRAM

Section 2999-hh. Medical respite program.

(a) "Medical respite program" means a not-for-profit corporation certified pursuant to subdivision two of this section to serve recipients whose prognosis or diagnosis necessitates the receipt of:

(i) Temporary room and board with appropriate kitchen and bathroom facilities for the recipient, and where applicable, family members and/or dependents; and

(ii) The provision or arrangement of the provision of health care and support services; provided, however, that the operation of a medical respite program shall be separate and distinct from any housing programs offered to individuals who do not qualify as recipients, unless such individuals are the recipient's family member and/or dependent.

(b) "Recipient" means an individual who:

(i) Has a qualifying health condition that requires treatment or care;

(ii) Does not require hospital inpatient, observation unit, or emergency room level of care, or a medically indicated emergency department or observation visit; and

(iii) Is experiencing homelessness or at imminent risk of homelessness. A person shall be deemed "homeless" if they lack a fixed, regular and adequate nighttime residence in a location ordinarily used as a regular sleeping accommodation for people.

2. Certification. (a) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of law, the commissioner may certify a not-for-profit corporation as an operator of a medical respite program.

(b) The commissioner may make regulations to establish procedures to review and approve applications for a certification pursuant to this article, which shall, at a minimum, specify standards for: recipient eligibility; medical respite program services that shall be provided; physical environment; staffing; and policies and procedures governing health and safety, length of stay, referrals, discharge, and coordination of care.

3. Operating standards; responsibility for standards. (a) Medical respite programs certified pursuant to this article shall:

(i) Provide recipients and where applicable, their family members with temporary room and board with appropriate kitchen and bathroom facilities; and

(ii) Provide, or arrange for the provision of, health care and support services to recipients.

(b) Nothing in this article shall affect the application, qualification, or requirements that may apply to an operator with respect to any other licenses or operating certificates that such operator may hold, including, without limitation, under article twenty-eight of this chapter or article seven of the social services law.

4. Temporary accommodation. A medical respite program shall be considered a form of emergency shelter or temporary shelter for purposes of determining a recipient's eligibility for housing programs or benefits administered by the state or by a local social services district, including programs or benefits that support access to accommodations of a temporary, transitional, or permanent nature. No claim of recovery shall accrue against a recipient to recover the cost of care and services provided under this article. Care and services provided under this article shall not be deemed public benefits that would affect a recipient's immigration status under federal law.

The commissioner shall have the authority to inquire into the operation of any medical respite program and to conduct periodic inspections of facilities with respect to the fitness and adequacy of the premises, equipment, personnel, rules and by-laws, standards of medical care and services, system of accounts, records, and the adequacy of financial resources and sources of future revenues.

No action taken against an operator under this subdivision shall affect an operator's other licenses or certifications; provided however, that the facts that gave rise to the revocation, suspension, limitation, annulment or denial of certification may also form the basis of a limitation, suspension of revocation of such other licenses or certifications.

(b) No medical respite program certification shall be revoked, suspended, limited, annulled or denied without a hearing; provided that a certification may be temporarily suspended or limited without a hearing for a period not in excess of thirty days upon written notice that the continuation of the medical respite program places the health or safety of the recipients in imminent danger, and that the action is in the interest of the recipients. However, the department shall not make a determination until the program has had a reasonable opportunity, following the initial determination that the program places the health or safety of the recipients in imminent danger, to correct its deficiencies and following this period, has been given written notice and opportunity for hearing.

(c) Nothing in this section shall prevent the commissioner from imposing sanctions or penalties on a medical respite program that are authorized under any other law or regulation.

7. The commissioner shall promulgate regulations to implement this article.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately and shall be deemed to have been in full force and effect on and after April 1, 2021.

§ 40. The superintendent of financial services shall establish rates for policies providing coverage for physicians and surgeons medical malpractice for the periods commencing July 1, 1985 and ending June 30, [~~2021~~] 2022; provided, however, that notwithstanding any other provision of law, the superintendent shall not establish or approve any increase in rates for the period commencing July 1, 2009 and ending June 30, 2010. The superintendent shall direct insurers to establish segregated accounts for premiums, payments, reserves and investment income attributable to such premium periods and shall require periodic reports by the insurers regarding claims and expenses attributable to such periods to monitor whether such accounts will be sufficient to meet incurred claims and expenses. On or after July 1, 1989, the superintendent shall impose a surcharge on premiums to satisfy a projected deficiency that is attributable to the premium levels established pursuant to this section for such periods; provided, however, that such annual surcharge shall not exceed eight percent of the established rate until July 1, [~~2021~~] 2022, at which time and thereafter such surcharge shall not exceed twenty-five percent of the approved adequate rate, and that such annual surcharges shall continue for such period of time as shall be sufficient to satisfy such deficiency. The superintendent shall not impose such surcharge during the period commencing July 1, 2009 and ending June 30, 2010. On and after July 1, 1989, the surcharge prescribed by this section shall be retained by insurers to the extent that they insured physicians and surgeons during the July 1, 1985 through June 30, [~~2021~~] 2022 policy periods; in the event and to the extent physicians and surgeons were insured by another insurer during such periods, all or a pro rata share of the surcharge, as the case may be, shall be remitted to such other insurer in accordance with rules and regulations to be promulgated by the superintendent. Surcharges collected from physicians and surgeons who were not insured during such policy periods shall be apportioned among all insurers in proportion to the premium written by each insurer during such policy periods; if a physician or surgeon was insured by an insurer subject to rates established by the superintendent during such policy periods, and at any time thereafter a hospital, health maintenance organization, employer or institution is responsible for responding in damages for liability arising out of such physician's or surgeon's practice of medicine, such responsible entity shall also remit to such prior insurer the equivalent amount that would then be collected as a surcharge if the physician or surgeon had continued to remain insured by such prior insurer. In the event any insurer that provided coverage during such policy periods is in liquidation, the property/casualty insurance security fund shall receive the portion of surcharges to which the insurer in liquidation would have been entitled. The surcharges authorized herein shall be deemed to be income earned for the purposes of section 2303 of the insurance law. The superintendent, in establishing adequate rates and in determining any projected deficiency pursuant to the requirements of this section and the insurance law, shall give substantial weight, determined in his discretion and judgment, to the prospective anticipated effect of any regulations promulgated and laws enacted and the public benefit of stabilizing malpractice rates and minimizing rate level fluctuation during the period of time necessary for the development of more reliable statistical experience as to the efficacy of such laws and regulations affecting medical, dental or podiatric malpractice enacted or promulgated in 1985, 1986, by this act and at any other time. Notwithstanding any provision of the insurance law, rates already established and to be established by the superintendent pursuant to this section are deemed adequate if such rates would be adequate when taken together with the maximum authorized annual surcharges to be imposed for a reasonable period of time whether or not any such annual surcharge has been actually imposed as of the establishment of such rates.

§ 10. Contingent upon the availability of federal financial participation or other federal authorization from the centers of medicare and medicaid services, the commissioner of health, in consultation with the superintendent of the department of financial services, is authorized to implement one or more five-year regional demonstration programs that would be designed to improve health outcomes and reduce costs, using a value based model that pays providers an actuarially sound global, prepaid and fully capitated amount for individuals in the designated region who are enrolled in the state's plan for medical assistance established pursuant to title XIX, or any successor title, of the federal social security act; the Medicare program established pursuant to title XVIII, or any successor title, of the federal social security act; and insurers, corporations, and health care plans authorized pursuant to the insurance law or public health law. The demonstration program may offer funding and incentives designed to improve health outcomes for attributed individual beneficiaries designed to improve health outcomes, develop necessary infrastructure and systems; and connect individuals to community based organizations that address the social determinants of health. At least one regional demonstration program shall be in the western, central, southern tier, or capital regions of the state. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the commissioner or the superintendent of the department of financial services may waive any regulatory requirements as are necessary to implement the demonstration program; provided however, that regulations pertaining to patient safety, patient autonomy, patient privacy, patient rights, due process, scope of practice, professional licensure, environmental protections, provider reimbursement methodologies, or occupational standards and employee rights may not be waived, nor shall any regulations be waived if such waiver would risk patient safety. Participation in such program shall be voluntary. One year after this section shall take effect and annually thereafter the commissioner of health shall provide a report detailing the activities and outcomes of such program, including any regulatory requirements that are waived, to the speaker of the assembly and the temporary president of the senate.

§ 2. This act shall take effect immediately.

§ 3. Subdivision 2-a of section 4900 of the public health law, as added by chapter 586 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

2-a. "Clinical standards" means those guidelines and standards set forth in the utilization review plan by the utilization review agent whose adverse determination is under appeal or, in the case of medically fragile children, those guidelines and standards as required by section forty-nine hundred three-a of this article.

§ 4. Paragraph (c) of subdivision 10 of section 4900 of the public health law, as added by chapter 705 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

(c) a description of practice guidelines and standards used by a utilization review agent in carrying out a determination of medical necessity, which in the case of medically fragile children shall incorporate the standards required by section forty-nine hundred three-a of this article;

§ 5. Section 4900 of the public health law is amended by adding a new subdivision 11 to read as follows:

11. "Medically fragile child" means an individual who is under twenty-one years of age and has a chronic debilitating condition or conditions, who may or may not be hospitalized or institutionalized, and meets one or more of the following criteria (a) is technologically dependent for life or health sustaining functions, (b) requires a complex medication regimen or medical interventions to maintain or to improve their health status, or (c) is in need of ongoing assessment or intervention to prevent serious deterioration of their health status or medical complications that place their life, health or development at risk. Chronic debilitating conditions include, but are not limited to, bronchopulmonary dysplasia, cerebral palsy, congenital heart disease, microcephaly, pulmonary hypertension, and muscular dystrophy. The term "medically fragile child" shall also include severe conditions, including but not limited to traumatic brain injury, which typically require care in a specialty care center for medically fragile children, even though the child does not have a chronic debilitating condition or also meet one of the three conditions of this subdivision. In order to facilitate the prompt and convenient identification of particular patient care situations meeting the definitions of this subdivision, the commissioner may issue written guidance listing (by diagnosis codes, utilization thresholds, or other available coding or commonly used medical classifications) the types of patient care needs which are deemed to meet this definition. Notwithstanding the definitions set forth in this subdivision, any patient which has received prior approval from a utilization review agent for admission to a specialty care facility for medically fragile children shall be considered a medically fragile child at least until discharge from that facility occurs.

§ 6. The public health law is amended by adding a new section 4903-a to read as follows:

§ 4903-a. Utilization review determinations for medically fragile children. 1. Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of the utilization review agent's clinical standards, the utilization review agent shall administer and apply the clinical standards (and make determinations of medical necessity) regarding medically fragile children in accordance with the requirements of this section. If the utilization review agent is a separate entity from the health maintenance organization certified under article forty-four of this chapter, the health maintenance organization shall make contractual or other arrangements in order to facilitate the utilization review agent's compliance with this section.

2. In the case of a medically fragile child, the term "medically necessary" shall mean health care and services that are necessary to promote normal growth and development and prevent, diagnose, treat, ameliorate or palliate the effects of a physical, mental, behavioral, genetic, or congenital condition, injury or disability. When applied to the circumstances of any particular medically fragile child, the term "medically necessary" shall include (a) the care or services that are essential to prevent, diagnose, prevent the worsening of, alleviate or ameliorate the effects of an illness, injury, disability, disorder or condition, (b) the care or services that are essential to the overall physical, cognitive and mental growth and developmental needs of the child, and (c) the care or services that will assist the child to achieve or maintain maximum functional capacity in performing daily activities, taking into account both the functional capacity of the child and those functional capacities that are appropriate for individuals of the same age as the child. The utilization review agent shall base its determination on medical and other relevant information provided by the child's primary care provider, other health care providers, school, local social services, and/or local public health officials that have evaluated the child, and the utilization review agent will ensure the care and services are provided in sufficient amount, duration and scope to reasonably be expected to produce the intended results and to have the expected benefits that outweigh the potential harmful effects.

3. Utilization review agents shall undertake the following with respect to medically fragile children:

(a) Consider as medically necessary all covered services that assist medically fragile children in reaching their maximum functional capacity, taking into account the appropriate functional capacities of children of the same age. Health maintenance organizations must continue to cover services until that child achieves age-appropriate functional capacity. A managed care provider, authorized by section three hundred sixty-four-j of the social services law, shall also be required to make payment for covered services required to comply with federal Early Periodic Screening, Diagnosis, and Treatment ("EPSDT") standards, as specified by the commissioner of health.

(b) Shall not base determinations solely upon review standards applicable to (or designed for) adults to medically fragile children. Adult standards include, but are not limited to, Medicare rehabilitation standards and the "Medicare 3 hour rule." Determinations have to take into consideration the specific needs of the child and the circumstances pertaining to their growth and development.

(c) Accommodate unusual stabilization and prolonged discharge plans for medically fragile children, as appropriate. Issues utilization review agents must consider when developing and approving discharge plans include, but are not limited to: sudden reversals of condition or progress, which may make discharge decisions uncertain or more prolonged than for other children or adults; necessary training of parents or other adults to care for medically fragile children at home; unusual discharge delays encountered if parents or other responsible adults decline or are slow to assume full responsibility for caring for medically fragile children; the need to await an appropriate home or home-like environment rather than discharge to a housing shelter or other inappropriate setting for medically fragile children, the need to await construction adaptations to the home (such as the installation of generators or other equipment); and lack of available suitable specialized care (such as unavailability of pediatric nursing home beds, pediatric ventilator units, pediatric private duty nursing in the home, or specialized pediatric home care services). Utilization review agents must develop a person centered discharge plan for the child taking the above situations into consideration.

(d) It is the utilization review agent's network management responsibility to identify an available provider of needed covered services, as determined through a person centered care plan, to effect safe discharge from a hospital or other facility; payments shall not be denied to a discharging hospital or other facility due to lack of an available post-discharge provider as long as they have worked with the utilization review agent to identify an appropriate provider. Utilization review agents are required to approve the use of out-of-network providers if the health maintenance organization does not have a participating provider to address the needs of the child.

(e) This section does not limit any other rights the medically fragile child may have, including the right to appeal the denial of out of network coverage at in-network cost sharing levels where an appropriate in-network provider is not available pursuant to subdivision one-b of section forty-nine hundred four of this title.

(f) Utilization review agents must ensure that medically fragile children receive services from appropriate providers that have the expertise to effectively treat the child and must contract with providers with demonstrated expertise in caring for the medically fragile children. Network providers shall refer to appropriate network community and facility providers to meet the needs of the child or seek authorization from the utilization review agent for out-of-network providers when participating providers cannot meet the child's needs. The utilization review agent must authorize services as fast as the enrollee's condition requires and in accordance with established timeframes in the contracts or policy forms.

4. A health maintenance organization shall have a procedure by which an enrollee who is a medically fragile child who requires specialized medical care over a prolonged period of time, may receive a referral to a specialty care center for medically fragile children. If the health maintenance organization, or the primary care provider or the specialist treating the patient, in consultation with a medical director of the utilization review agent, determines that the enrollee's care would most appropriately be provided by such a specialty care center, the organization shall refer the enrollee to such center. In no event shall a health maintenance organization be required to permit an enrollee to elect to have a non-participating specialty care center, unless the organization does not have an appropriate specialty care center to treat the enrollee's disease or condition within its network. Such referral shall be pursuant to a treatment plan developed by the specialty care center and approved by the health maintenance organization, in consultation with the primary care provider, if any, or a specialist treating the patient, and the enrollee or the enrollee's designee. If an organization refers an enrollee to a specialty care center that does not participate in the organization's network, services provided pursuant to the approved treatment plan shall be provided at no additional cost to the enrollee beyond what the enrollee would otherwise pay for services received within the network. For purposes of this section, a specialty care center for medically fragile children shall mean a children's hospital as defined pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (e-2) of subdivision four of section twenty-eight hundred seven-c of this chapter, a residential health care facility affiliated with such a children's hospital, any residential health care facility with a specialty pediatric bed average daily census during two thousand seventeen of fifty or more patients, or a facility which satisfies such other criteria as the commissioner may designate.

5. When rendering or arranging for care or payment, both the provider and the health maintenance organization shall inquire of, and shall consider the desires of the family of a medically fragile child including, but not limited to, the availability and capacity of the family, the need for the family to simultaneously care for the family's other children, and the need for parents to continue employment.

6. The health maintenance organization must pay at least eighty-five percent (unless a different percentage or method has been mutually agreed to) of the facility's negotiated acute care rate for all days of inpatient hospital care at a specialty care center for medically fragile children when the health maintenance organization and the specialty care facility mutually agree the patient is ready for discharge from the specialty care center to the patient's home but requires specialized home services that are not available or in place, or the patient is awaiting discharge to a residential health care facility when no residential health care facility bed is available given the specialized needs of the medically fragile child. The health maintenance organization must pay at least the facility's Medicaid skilled nursing facility rate, unless a different rate has been mutually negotiated, for all days of residential health care facility care at a specialty care center for medically fragile children when the health maintenance organization and the specialty care facility mutually agree the patient is ready for discharge from the specialty care center to the patient's home but requires specialized home services that are not available or in place. Such requirements shall apply until the health plan can identify and secure admission to an alternate provider rendering the necessary level of services. The specialty care center must cooperate with the health maintenance organization's placement efforts.

7. In the event a health maintenance organization enters into a participation agreement with a specialty care center for medically fragile children in this state, the requirements of this section shall apply to such participation agreement and to all claims submitted to, or payments made by, any other health maintenance organizations, insurers or payors making payment to the specialty care center pursuant to the provisions of that participation agreement.

8. (a) The commissioner shall designate a single set of clinical standards applicable to all utilization review agents regarding pediatric extended acute care stays (defined for the purposes of this section as discharge from one acute care hospital followed by immediate admission to a second acute care hospital; not including transfers of case payment cases as defined in section twenty-eight hundred seven-c of this chapter). The standards shall be adapted from national long term acute care hospital standards for adults and shall be approved by the commissioner, after consultation with one or more specialty care centers for medically fragile children. The standards shall include, but not be limited to, specifications of the level of care supports in the patient's home, at a skilled nursing facility or other setting, that must be in place in order to safely and adequately care for a medically fragile child before medically complex acute care can be deemed no longer medically necessary. The standards designated by the commissioner shall pre-empt the clinical standards, if any, for pediatric extended acute care set forth in the utilization review plan by the utilization review agent.

(b) The commissioner shall designate a single set of supplemental clinical standards (in addition to the clinical standards selected by the utilization review agent) applicable to all utilization review agents regarding acute and sub-acute inpatient rehabilitation for medically fragile children. The supplemental standards shall specify the level of care supports in the patient's home, at a skilled nursing facility or other setting, that must be in place in order to safely and adequately care for a medically fragile child before acute or sub-acute inpatient rehabilitation can be deemed no longer medically necessary. The supplemental standards designated by the commissioner shall pre-empt the clinical standards, if any, regarding readiness for discharge of medically fragile children from acute or sub-acute inpatient rehabilitation, as set forth in the utilization review plan by the utilization review agent.

9. In all instances the utilization review agent shall defer to the recommendations of the referring physician to refer a medically fragile child for care at a particular specialty provider of care to medically fragile children, or the recommended treatment plan by the treating physician at a specialty care center for medically fragile children, except where the utilization review agent has determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that: (a) the recommended provider or proposed treatment plan is not in the best interest of the medically fragile child, or (b) an alternative provider offering substantially the same level of care in accordance with substantially the same treatment plan is available from a lower cost provider.

§ 7. Subparagraph (D) of paragraph 1 of subsection (b) of section 4900 of the insurance law, as added by section 36 of subpart A of part BB of chapter 57 of the laws of 2019, is amended and a new subparagraph (E) is added to read as follows:

(D) for purposes of a determination involving treatment for a mental health condition:

(i) a physician who possesses a current and valid non-restricted license to practice medicine and who specializes in behavioral health and has experience in the delivery of mental health courses of treatment; or

(ii) a health care professional other than a licensed physician who specializes in behavioral health and has experience in the delivery of mental health courses of treatment and, where applicable, possesses a current and valid non-restricted license, certificate, or registration or, where no provision for a license, certificate or registration exists, is credentialed by the national accrediting body appropriate to the profession; [~~and~~] or

(E) for purposes of a determination involving treatment of a medically fragile child:

(i) a physician who possesses a current and valid non-restricted license to practice medicine and who is board certified or board eligible in pediatric rehabilitation, pediatric critical care, or neonatology; or

(ii) a physician who possesses a current and valid non-restricted license to practice medicine and is board certified in a pediatric subspecialty directly relevant to the patient's medical condition; and

§ 8. Paragraph 2 of subsection (b) of section 4900 of the insurance law, as amended by chapter 586 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

(2) for purposes of title two of this article:

(A) a physician who:

(i) possesses a current and valid non-restricted license to practice medicine;

(ii) where applicable, is board certified or board eligible in the same or similar specialty as the health care provider who typically manages the medical condition or disease or provides the health care service or treatment under appeal;

(iii) has been practicing in such area of specialty for a period of at least five years; and

(iv) is knowledgeable about the health care service or treatment under appeal; or

(B) a health care professional other than a licensed physician who:

(i) where applicable, possesses a current and valid non-restricted license, certificate or registration;

(ii) where applicable, is credentialed by the national accrediting body appropriate to the profession in the same profession and same or similar specialty as the health care provider who typically manages the medical condition or disease or provides the health care service or treatment under appeal;

(iii) has been practicing in such area of specialty for a period of at least five years;

(iv) is knowledgeable about the health care service or treatment under appeal; and

(v) where applicable to such health care professional's scope of practice, is clinically supported by a physician who possesses a current and valid non-restricted license to practice medicine; or

(C) for purposes of a determination involving treatment of a medically fragile child:

(i) a physician who possesses a current and valid non-restricted license to practice medicine and who is board certified or board eligible in pediatric rehabilitation, pediatric critical care, or neonatology; or

§ 9. Subsection (b-1) of section 4900 of the insurance law, as added by chapter 586 of the laws of 1998, is amended to read as follows:

(b-1) "Clinical standards" means those guidelines and standards set forth in the utilization review plan by the utilization review agent whose adverse determination is under appeal or, in the case of medically fragile children those guidelines and standards as required by section forty-nine hundred three-a of this article.

§ 10. Subsection (j) of section 4900 of the insurance law, as added by chapter 705 of the laws of 1996, is amended to read as follows:

(j) "Utilization review plan" means: (1) a description of the process for developing the written clinical review criteria; (2) a description of the types of written clinical information which the plan might consider in its clinical review, including but not limited to, a set of specific written clinical review criteria; (3) a description of practice guidelines and standards used by a utilization review agent in carrying out a determination of medical necessity, which, in the case of medically fragile children, shall incorporate the standards required by section forty-nine hundred three-a of this article; (4) the procedures for scheduled review and evaluation of the written clinical review criteria; and (5) a description of the qualifications and experience of the health care professionals who developed the criteria, who are responsible for periodic evaluation of the criteria and of the health care professionals or others who use the written clinical review criteria in the process of utilization review.

§ 11. Section 4900 of the insurance law is amended by adding a new subsection (k) to read as follows:

(k) "Medically fragile child" means an individual who is under twenty-one years of age and has a chronic debilitating condition or conditions, who may or may not be hospitalized or institutionalized, and meets one or more of the following criteria: (1) is technologically dependent for life or health sustaining functions; (2) requires a complex medication regimen or medical interventions to maintain or to improve their health status; or (3) is in need of ongoing assessment or intervention to prevent serious deterioration of their health status or medical complications that place their life, health or development at risk. Chronic debilitating conditions include, but are not limited to, bronchopulmonary dysplasia, cerebral palsy, congenital heart disease, microcephaly, pulmonary hypertension, and muscular dystrophy. The term "medically fragile child" shall also include severe conditions, including but not limited to traumatic brain injury, which typically require care in a specialty care center for medically fragile children, even though the child does not have a chronic debilitating condition or also meet one of the three conditions of this subsection. In order to facilitate the prompt and convenient identification of particular patient care situations meeting the definitions of this subsection, the superintendent, after consulting with the commissioner of health, may issue written guidance listing (by diagnosis codes, utilization thresholds, or other available coding or commonly used medical classifications) the types of patient care needs which are deemed to meet this definition. Notwithstanding the definitions set forth in this subsection, any patient which has received prior approval from a utilization review agent for admission to a specialty care facility for medically fragile children shall be considered a medically fragile child at least until discharge from that facility occurs.

§ 12. The insurance law is amended by adding a new section 4903-a to read as follows:

§ 4903-a. Utilization review determinations for medically fragile children. (a) Notwithstanding any inconsistent provision of the utilization review agent's clinical standards, the utilization review agent shall administer and apply the clinical standards (and make determinations of medical necessity) regarding medically fragile children in accordance with the requirements of this section. If the utilization review agent is a separate entity from the health care plan, the health care plan shall make contractual or other arrangements in order to facilitate the utilization review agent's compliance with this section.

(b) In the case of a medically fragile child, the term "medically necessary" shall mean health care and services that are necessary to promote normal growth and development and prevent, diagnose, treat, ameliorate or palliate the effects of a physical, mental, behavioral, genetic, or congenital condition, injury or disability. When applied to the circumstances of any particular medically fragile child, the term "medically necessary" shall include: (1) the care or services that are essential to prevent, diagnose, prevent the worsening of, alleviate or ameliorate the effects of an illness, injury, disability, disorder or condition; (2) the care or services that are essential to the overall physical, cognitive and mental growth and developmental needs of the child; and (3) the care or services that will assist the child to achieve or maintain maximum functional capacity in performing daily activities, taking into account both the functional capacity of the child and those functional capacities that are appropriate for individuals of the same age as the child. The utilization review agent shall base its determination on medical and other relevant information provided by the child's primary care provider, other health care providers, school, local social services, and/or local public health officials that have evaluated the child, and the utilization review agent will ensure the care and services are provided in sufficient amount, duration and scope to reasonably be expected to produce the intended results and to have the expected benefits that outweigh the potential harmful effects.

(c) Utilization review agents shall undertake the following with respect to medically fragile children:

(1) Consider as medically necessary all covered services that assist medically fragile children in reaching their maximum functional capacity, taking into account the appropriate functional capacities of children of the same age. Utilization review agents must continue to cover services until that child achieves age-appropriate functional capacity.

(2) Shall not base determinations solely upon review standards applicable to (or designed for) adults to medically fragile children. Adult standards include, but are not limited to, Medicare rehabilitation standards and the "Medicare 3 hour rule." Determinations have to take into consideration the specific needs of the child and the circumstances pertaining to their growth and development.

(3) Accommodate unusual stabilization and prolonged discharge plans for medically fragile children, as appropriate. Issues utilization review agents must consider when developing and approving discharge plans include, but are not limited to: sudden reversals of condition or progress, which may make discharge decisions uncertain or more prolonged than for other children or adults; necessary training of parents or other adults to care for medically fragile children at home; unusual discharge delays encountered if parents or other responsible adults decline or are slow to assume full responsibility for caring for medically fragile children; the need to await an appropriate home or home-like environment rather than discharge to a housing shelter or other inappropriate setting for medically fragile children, the need to await construction adaptations to the home (such as the installation of generators or other equipment); and lack of available suitable specialized care (such as unavailability of pediatric nursing home beds, pediatric ventilator units, pediatric private duty nursing in the home, or specialized pediatric home care services). Utilization review agents must develop a person centered discharge plan for the child taking the above situations into consideration.

(4) It is the utilization review agents network management responsibility to identify an available provider of needed covered services, as determined through a person centered care plan, to effect safe discharge from a hospital or other facility; payments shall not be denied to a discharging hospital or other facility due to lack of an available post-discharge provider as long as they have worked with the utilization review agent to identify an appropriate provider. Utilization review agents are required to approve the use of out-of-network providers if they do not have a participating provider to address the needs of the child.

(5) This section does not limit any other rights a medically fragile child may have, including the right to appeal the denial of out of network coverage at in-network cost sharing levels where an appropriate in-network provider is not available pursuant to subsection a-two of section four thousand nine hundred four of this title.

(6) Utilization review agents must ensure that medically fragile children receive services from appropriate providers that have the expertise to effectively treat the child and must contract with providers with demonstrated expertise in caring for the medically fragile children. Network providers shall refer to appropriate network community and facility providers to meet the needs of the child or seek authorization from the utilization review agent for out-of-network providers when participating providers cannot meet the child's needs. The utilization review agent must authorize services as fast as the insured's condition requires and in accordance with established timeframes in the contracts or policy forms.

(d) A utilization review agent shall have a procedure by which an insured who is a medically fragile child who requires specialized medical care over a prolonged period of time, may receive a referral to a specialty care center for medically fragile children. If the utilization review agent, or the primary care provider or the specialist treating the patient, in consultation with a medical director of the utilization review agent, determines that the insured's care would most appropriately be provided by such a specialty care center, the utilization review agent shall refer the insured to such center. In no event shall a utilization review agent be required to permit an insured to elect to have a non-participating specialty care center, unless the health care plan does not have an appropriate specialty care center to treat the insured's disease or condition within its network. Such referral shall be pursuant to a treatment plan developed by the specialty care center and approved by the utilization review agent, in consultation with the primary care provider, if any, or a specialist treating the patient, and the insured or the insured's designee. If a utilization review agent refers an insured to a specialty care center that does not participate in the health care plan's network, services provided pursuant to the approved treatment plan shall be provided at no additional cost to the insured beyond what the insured would otherwise pay for services received within the network. For purposes of this section, a specialty care center for medically fragile children shall mean a children's hospital as defined pursuant to subparagraph (iv) of paragraph (e-2) of subdivision four of section two thousand eight hundred seven-c of the public health law, a residential health care facility affiliated with such a children's hospital, any residential health care facility with a specialty pediatric bed average daily census during two thousand seventeen of fifty or more patients, or a facility which satisfies such other criteria as the commissioner of health may designate.

(e) When rendering or arranging for care or payment, both the provider and the health care plan shall inquire of, and shall consider the desires of, the family of a medically fragile child including, but not limited to, the availability and capacity of the family, the need for the family to simultaneously care for the family's other children, and the need for parents to continue employment.

(f) The health care plan must pay at least eighty-five percent (unless a different percentage or method has been mutually agreed to) of the facility's negotiated acute care rate for all days of inpatient hospital care at a specialty care center for medically fragile children when the insurer and the specialty care facility mutually agree the patient is ready for discharge from the specialty care center to the patient's home but requires specialized home services that are not available or in place, or the patient is awaiting discharge to a residential health care facility when no residential health care facility bed is available given the specialized needs of the medically fragile child. The health care plan must pay at least the facility's skilled nursing Medicaid facility rate, unless a different rate has been mutually negotiated, for all days of residential health care facility care at a specialty care center for medically fragile children when the insurer and the specialty care facility mutually agree the patient is ready for discharge from the specialty care center to the patient's home but requires specialized home services that are not available or in place. Such requirements shall apply until the health care plan can identify and secure admission to an alternate provider rendering the necessary level of services. The specialty care center must cooperate with the health care plan's placement efforts.

(g) In the event a health care plan enters into a participation agreement with a specialty care center for medically fragile children in this state, the requirements of this section shall apply to that participation agreement and to all claims submitted to, or payments made by, any other insurers, health maintenance organizations or payors making payment to the specialty care center pursuant to the provisions of that participation agreement.

(h) (1) The superintendent, after consulting with the commissioner of health, shall designate a single set of clinical standards applicable to all utilization review agents regarding pediatric extended acute care stays (defined for the purposes of this section as discharge from one acute care hospital followed by immediate admission to a second acute care hospital; not including transfers of case payment cases as defined in section two thousand eight hundred seven-c of the public health law). The standards shall be adapted from national long term acute care hospital standards for adults and shall be approved by the superintendent, after consultation with one or more specialty care centers for medically fragile children. The standards shall include, but not be limited to, specifications of the level of care supports in the patient's home, at a skilled nursing facility or other setting, that must be in place in order to safely and adequately care for a medically fragile child before medically complex acute care can be deemed no longer medically necessary. The standards designated by the commissioner shall pre-empt the clinical standards, if any, for pediatric extended acute care set forth in the utilization review plan by the utilization review agent.

(2) The superintendent, after consulting with the commissioner of health, shall designate a single set of supplemental clinical standards (in addition to the clinical standards selected by the utilization review agent) applicable to all utilization review agents regarding acute and sub-acute inpatient rehabilitation for medically fragile children. The standards shall specify the level of care supports in the patient's home, at a skilled nursing facility or other setting, that must be in place in order to safely and adequately care for a medically fragile child before acute or sub-acute inpatient rehabilitation can be deemed no longer medically necessary. The supplemental standards designated by the superintendent shall pre-empt the clinical standards, if any, regarding readiness for discharge of medically fragile children from acute or sub-acute inpatient rehabilitation, as set forth in the utilization review plan by the utilization review agent.

(i) In all instances the utilization review agent shall defer to the recommendations of the referring physician to refer a medically fragile child for care at a particular specialty provider of care to medically fragile children, or the recommended treatment plan by the treating physician at a specialty care center for medically fragile children, except where the utilization review agent has determined, by clear and convincing evidence, that: (1) the recommended provider or proposed treatment plan is not in the best interest of the medically fragile child; or (2) an alternative provider offering substantially the same level of care in accordance with substantially the same treatment plan is available from a lower cost provider.

§ 13. This act shall take effect January 1, 2022.

If any clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part of this act shall be adjudged by any court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair, or invalidate the remainder thereof, but shall be confined in its operation to the clause, sentence, paragraph, subdivision, section or part thereof directly involved in the controversy in which such judgment shall have been rendered. It is hereby declared to be the intent of the legislature that this act would have been enacted even if such invalid provisions had not been included herein.

§ 3. This act shall take effect immediately provided, however, that the applicable effective date of Parts A through XX of this act shall be as specifically set forth in the last section of such Parts.
