AN ACT to amend the real property tax law, in relation to qualifying income for a property tax exemption for persons sixty-five years of age or over

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Paragraph (a) of subdivision 3 of section 467 of the real property tax law, as separately amended by chapters 131 and 279 of the laws of 2017, is amended to read as follows:

(a) if the income of the owner or the combined income of the owners of the property for the income tax year immediately preceding the date of making application for exemption exceeds the sum of three thousand dollars, or such other sum not less than three thousand dollars nor more than ~~[twenty-six thousand dollars beginning July first, two thousand six, twenty-seven thousand dollars beginning July first, two thousand seven, twenty-eight thousand dollars beginning July first, two thousand eight, twenty-nine thousand dollars beginning July first, two thousand nine]~~ thirty-five thousand dollars beginning July first, two thousand twenty-two, and in a city with a population of one million or more fifty thousand dollars beginning July first, two thousand seventeen, as may be provided by the local law, ordinance or resolution adopted pursuant to this section. Income tax year shall mean the twelve month period for which the owner or owners filed a federal personal income tax return, or if no such return is filed, the calendar year. Where title is vested in either the husband or the wife, their combined income may not exceed such sum, except where the husband or wife, or ex-husband or ex-wife is absent from the property as provided in subparagraph (ii) of paragraph (d) of this subdivision, then only the income of the spouse or ex-spouse residing on the property shall be considered and may not exceed such sum. Such income shall include social security and retirement benefits,

1 interest, dividends, total gain from the sale or exchange of a capital
2 asset which may be offset by a loss from the sale or exchange of a capi-3 tal asset in the same income tax year, net rental income, salary or 4 earnings, and net income from self-employment, but shall not include a 5 return of capital, gifts, inheritances, payments made to individuals 6 because of their status as victims of Nazi persecution, as defined in 7 P.L. 103-286 or monies earned through employment in the federal foster 8 grandparent program and any such income shall be offset by all medical 9 and prescription drug expenses actually paid which were not reimbursed 10 or paid for by insurance, if the governing board of a municipality,
11 after a public hearing, adopts a local law, ordinance or resolution
12 providing therefor. In addition, an exchange of an annuity for an annui-13 ty contract, which resulted in non-taxable gain, as determined in 14 section one thousand thirty-five of the internal revenue code, shall be 15 excluded from such income. Provided that such exclusion shall be based 16 on satisfactory proof that such an exchange was solely an exchange of an 17 annuity for an annuity contract that resulted in a non-taxable transfer 18 determined by such section of the internal revenue code. Furthermore, 19 such income shall not include the proceeds of a reverse mortgage, as 20 authorized by section six-h of the banking law, and sections two hundred 21 eighty and two hundred eighty-a of the real property law; provided, 22 however, that monies used to repay a reverse mortgage may not be 23 deducted from income, and provided additionally that any interest or 24 dividends realized from the investment of reverse mortgage proceeds
25 shall be considered income. The provisions of this paragraph notwith-
26 standing, such income shall not include veterans disability compen-27 sation, as defined in Title 38 of the United States Code provided the 28 governing board of such municipality, after public hearing, adopts a 29 local law, ordinance or resolution providing therefor. In computing net 30 rental income and net income from self-employment no depreciation 31 deduction shall be allowed for the exhaustion, wear and tear of real or 32 personal property held for the production of income;
33 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately.
