1 provisions of article seventy of the penal law, shall be at least eighteen months. In the case of a person serving an indeterminate sentence of imprisonment imposed pursuant to the penal law in effect after September one, nineteen hundred sixty-seven, for the purposes of this article parole eligibility shall be upon the expiration of the minimum period of imprisonment fixed by the court or where the court has not 7 fixed any period, after service of the minimum period fixed by the state board of parole. If an incarcerated individual is denied release on 9 parole, such incarcerated individual shall not be deemed an eligible 10 incarcerated individual until he or she is within two years of his or 11 her next scheduled appearance before the state parole board. In any case 12 where an incarcerated individual is denied release on parole while participating in a temporary release program, the department shall 13 14 review the status of the incarcerated individual to determine if contin-15 ued placement in the program is appropriate. No person convicted of any 16 escape or absconding offense defined in article two hundred five of the 17 penal law shall be eligible for temporary release. Further, no person 18 under sentence for aggravated harassment of an employee by an incarcerated individual as defined in section 240.32 of the penal law for, any 19 homicide offense defined in article one hundred twenty-five of the penal 20 21 law, for any sex offense defined in article one hundred thirty of the penal law, or for an offense defined in section 255.25, 255.26 or 255.27 the penal law shall be eligible to participate in a work release 23 program as defined in subdivision three of this section. Nor shall any 24 25 person under sentence for any sex offense defined in article one hundred 26 thirty of the penal law be eligible to participate in a community 27 services program as defined in subdivision five of this section. 28 Notwithstanding the foregoing, no person who is an otherwise eligible 29 incarcerated individual who is under sentence for a crime involving: (a) 30 infliction of serious physical injury upon another as defined in the 31 penal law or (b) any other offense involving the use or threatened use 32 of a deadly weapon may participate in a temporary release program with-33 out the written approval of the commissioner. The commissioner shall 34 promulgate regulations giving direction to the temporary release commit-35 tee at each institution in order to aid such committees in carrying out 36 this mandate.

The governor, by executive order, may exclude or limit the participation of any class of otherwise eligible incarcerated individuals from participation in a temporary release program. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to affect either the validity of any executive order previously issued limiting the participation of otherwise eligible incarcerated individuals in such program or the authority of the commissioner to impose appropriate regulations limiting such participation.

- § 2. Subdivision 6 of section 60.04 of the penal law, as amended by section 120 of subpart B of part C of chapter 62 of the laws of 2011, is amended to read as follows:
- 6. Substance abuse treatment. When the court imposes a sentence of imprisonment which requires a commitment to the state department of corrections and community supervision upon a person who stands convicted of a controlled substance or marihuana offense, the court may, upon motion of the defendant in its discretion, issue an order directing that the department of corrections and community supervision enroll the defendant in the comprehensive alcohol and substance abuse treatment program in an alcohol and substance abuse correctional annex as defined in subdivision eighteen of section two of the correction law, provided that the defendant will satisfy the statutory eligibility criteria for

1 participation in such program. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this subdivision, any defendant to be enrolled in such program pursuant to this subdivision shall be governed by the same rules and regulations promulgated by the department of corrections and community supervision, including without limitation those rules and regulations establishing requirements for completion and those rules and regulations 7 governing discipline and removal from the program. Such defendant shall be deemed eliqible for temporary release pursuant to subdivision two of 9 section eight hundred fifty-one of the correction law upon completion of such program. No such period of court ordered corrections based drug 10 11 abuse treatment pursuant to this subdivision shall be required to extend 12 beyond the defendant's conditional release date.

§ 3. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall have become a law; provided, however, that the amendments to subdivision 2 of section 851 of the correction law made by section one of this act shall be subject to the expiration of such subdivision and section pursuant to subdivision (c) of section 46 of chapter 60 of the laws of 18 1994 and section 10 of chapter 339 of the laws of 1972, as amended.
