IN ASSEMBLY

January 26, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. ABBATE -- read once and referred to the Committee on Governmental Employees

AN ACT to amend the retirement and social security law, in relation to the retirement of members who serve as police medics, police medic supervisors and members who perform police medic related services in the Nassau county police department

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The section heading and subdivisions a and d of section 89-s of the retirement and social security law, as amended by chapter 578 of the laws of 1998, are amended to read as follows:

Retirement of members who serve as ambulance medical technicians, ambulance medical technician/supervisors ~~[and]~~, members who perform ambulance medical technician related services, police medics, police medic supervisors and members who perform police medic related services in the Nassau county police department.

a. Any member who serves as an ambulance medical technician, ambulance medical technician/supervisor or a member who performs ambulance medical technician related services, or a police medic, police medic supervisor or a member who performs police medic related services and is employed in the Nassau county police department shall be eligible to retire pursuant to the provisions of this section. Such eligibility shall be an alternative to the eligibility provisions available under any other plan of this article to which such member is subject.

d. As used in this section "creditable service" shall include any and all services performed as an ambulance medical technician, ambulance medical technician/supervisor or member who performs ambulance medical technician related services, or a police medic, police medic supervisor or a member who performs police medic related services in the Nassau county police department.

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets ~~[-]~~ is old law to be omitted.
