AN ACT to amend the tax law, in relation to establishing a small business tax credit for certain efforts taken to improve such small business's facility in an effort to reduce the spread of infectious diseases

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. Section 210-B of the tax law is amended by adding a new subdivision 55 to read as follows:

55. Small business tax credit; infectious disease mitigation. (a) General. A taxpayer that is a small business shall be allowed a credit, to be computed as provided in this subdivision, against the tax imposed by this article for efforts taken to improve such taxpayer's facility in an effort to reduce the spread of infectious diseases.

(b) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall be equal to the amount of money spent by an eligible taxpayer to construct, install, build, and/or equip such taxpayer's facility with new amenities primarily intended to reduce the spread of infectious diseases, but shall not exceed five thousand dollars total for each location where such new amenities have been constructed, installed, built, and/or equipped.

(c) Carryover. The credit allowed under this subdivision for any taxable year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two hundred ten of this article. However, if the amount of credit allowable under this subdivision for any taxable year reduces the tax to such amount or if the taxpayer otherwise pays tax based on the fixed dollar

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

1 minimum amount, any amount of credit not deductible in such taxable year
2 may be carried over to the following three years, and may be deducted
3 from the qualified employer's tax for such years.

4 (d) Definitions. As used in this subdivision, the term "small busi-
5 ness" shall mean any business having fifty or fewer employees.

6 (e) Claim of credit. A taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim this
7 credit to the extent the basis of the calculation of this credit has
8 been claimed for another tax credit under this chapter.

9 § 2. Section 606 of the tax law is amended by adding a new subsection
10 (111) to read as follows:

11 (111) Small business tax credit; infectious disease mitigation. (1)
12 General. A taxpayer that is a small business shall be allowed a credit,
13 to be computed as provided in this subsection, against the tax imposed
14 by this article for efforts taken to improve such taxpayer's facility in 15 an effort to reduce the spread of infectious diseases.

16 (2) Amount of credit. A credit authorized by this section shall be 17 equal to the amount of money spent by an eligible taxpayer to construct,
18 install, build, and/or equip such taxpayer's facility with new amenities
19 primarily intended to reduce the spread of infectious diseases, but 20 shall not exceed five thousand dollars total for each location where 21 such new amenities have been constructed, installed, built, and/or 22 equipped.

23 (3) Carryover. The credit allowed under this subsection for any taxa-
24 ble year shall not reduce the tax due for such year to less than the 25 amount prescribed in paragraph (d) of subdivision one of section two
26 hundred ten of this chapter. However, if the amount of credit allowable 27 under this subsection for any taxable year reduces the tax to such 28 amount or if the taxpayer otherwise pays tax based on the fixed dollar
29 minimum amount, any amount of credit not deductible in such taxable year
30 may be carried over to the following three years, and may be deducted
31 from the qualified employer's tax for such years.

32 (4) Definitions. As used in this subsection, the term "small business"
33 shall mean any business having fifty or fewer employees.

34 (5) Claim of credit. A taxpayer shall not be allowed to claim this
35 credit to the extent the basis of the calculation of this credit has
36 been claimed for another tax credit under this chapter.

37 § 3. Subparagraph (B) of paragraph 1 of subsection (i) of section 606
38 of the tax law is amended by adding a new clause (xlvi) to read as 39 follows:
