AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to establishing healthy workplaces

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new article 20-D to read as follows:

ARTICLE 20-D

HEALTHY WORKPLACES

Section 760. Legislative findings and intent.

761. Definitions.

762. Abusive work environment.

763. Employer liability.

764. Employee liability.

765. Affirmative defenses.

766. Remedies.

767. Enforcement.

768. Effect on collective bargaining agreements.

769. Effect of other laws.

§ 760. Legislative findings and intent. The legislature hereby finds that the social and economic well-being of the state is dependent upon healthy and productive employees. At least one-third of all employees directly experience health endangering workplace bullying, abuse and harassment during their working lives. Such form of mistreatment is

1 four times more prevalent than sexual harassment alone. Workplace
2 bullying, mobbing and harassment can inflict serious harm upon targeted 3 employees, including feelings of shame and humiliation, severe anxiety, 4 depression, suicidal tendencies, impaired immune systems, hypertension, 5 increased risk of cardiovascular disease, and symptoms consistent with 6 post-traumatic stress disorder.

7 Furthermore, the legislature finds that abusive work environments can 8 have serious consequences for employers, including reduced employee 9 productivity and morale, higher turnover and absenteeism rates, and 10 significant increases in medical and workers' compensation claims.

11 The legislature hereby finds that if mistreated employees who have 12 been subjected to abusive treatment in the workplace cannot establish 13 that the behavior was motivated by race, color, sex, sexual orientation, 14 national origin or age, such employees are unlikely to be protected by 15 the law against such mistreatment.

16 The legislature hereby declares that legal protection from abusive 17 work environments should not be limited to behavior grounded in a 18 protected class status as required by employment discrimination stat-19 utes. Existing workers' compensation provisions and common law tort law 20 are inadequate to discourage such mistreatment or to provide adequate 21 redress to employees who have been harmed by abusive work environments.

22 The purpose of this article shall be to provide legal redress for 23 employees who have been harmed psychologically, physically or econom-24 ically by deliberate exposure to abusive work environments; and to 25 provide legal incentives for employers to prevent and respond to abusive 26 mistreatment of employees at work.

27 § 761. Definitions. As used in this article, the following terms shall 28 have the following meanings:

29 1. "Abusive conduct" means acts, omissions, or both, that a reasonable 30 person would find abusive, based on the severity, nature, and frequency 31 of the conduct, including, but not limited to: repeated verbal abuse 32 such as the use of derogatory remarks, insults, and epithets; verbal, 33 non-verbal, or physical conduct of a threatening, intimidating, or 34 humiliating nature; or the sabotage or undermining of an employee's work
35 performance. It shall be considered an aggravating factor if the conduct 36 exploited an employee's known psychological or physical illness or disa-37 bility. A single act normally shall not constitute abusive conduct, but 38 an especially severe and egregious act may meet this standard.

39 2. "Abusive work environment" means an employment condition when an 40 employer or one or more of its employees, acting with intent to cause 41 pain or distress to an employee, subjects that employee to abusive 42 conduct that causes physical harm, psychological harm or both.

43 3. "Adverse employment action" means an outcome which negatively 44 impacts an employee, including, but not limited to, a termination, 45 demotion, unfavorable reassignment, failure to promote, disciplinary 46 action or reduction in compensation.

47 4. "Constructive discharge" means an adverse employment action where:
48 (a) the employee reasonably believed he or she was subjected to an 49 abusive work environment;

50 (b) the employee resigned because of that conduct; and

51 (c) the employer was aware of the abusive conduct prior to the resig-52 nation and failed to stop it.

53 5. "Physical harm" means the impairment of a person's physical health 54 or bodily integrity, as established by competent evidence.

55 6. "Psychological harm" means the impairment of a person's mental 56 health, as established by competent evidence.

1 § 762. Abusive work environment. 1. No employee shall be subjected to 2 an abusive work environment.

3 2. No employer or employee shall retaliate in any manner against an 4 employee who has opposed any unlawful employment practice under this 5 article, or who has made a charge, testified, assisted, or participated 6 in any manner in an investigation or proceeding under this article, 7 including, but not limited to, internal complaints and proceedings, 8 arbitration and mediation proceedings and legal actions.

9 § 763. Employer liability. 1. An employer shall be vicariously liable
10 for a violation of section seven hundred sixty-two of this article 11 committed by its employee.

12 2. Where the alleged violation of such section does not include an 13 adverse employment action, it shall be an affirmative defense for an 14 employer only that:

15 (a) the employer exercised reasonable care to prevent and correct 16 promptly any actionable behavior; and 17 (b) the complainant employee unreasonably failed to take advantage of 18 appropriate preventive or corrective opportunities provided by the 19 employer.

20 § 764. Employee liability. 1. An employee may be individually liable 21 for a violation of section seven hundred sixty-two of this article.

22 2. It shall be an affirmative defense for an employee only that the 23 employee committed a violation of such section at the direction of the 24 employer, under actual or implied threat of an adverse employment 25 action.

26 § 765. Affirmative defenses. It shall be an affirmative defense that:

27 1. the complaint is based on an adverse employment action reasonably 28 made for poor performance, misconduct or economic necessity;

29 2. the complaint is based on a reasonable performance evaluation; or

30 3. the complaint is based on an employer's reasonable investigation 31 about potentially illegal or unethical activity.

32 § 766. Remedies. 1. Where a defendant has been found liable for a 33 violation of section seven hundred sixty-two of this article, the court 34 may enjoin such defendant from engaging in the unlawful employment prac-35 tice and may order any other relief that is deemed appropriate includ-36 ing, but not limited to, reinstatement, removal of the offending party 37 from the plaintiff's work environment, reimbursement for lost wages, 38 front pay, medical expenses, compensation for pain and suffering, 39 compensation for emotional distress, punitive damages and attorney fees.

40 2. Where an employer is liable for a violation of section seven 41 hundred sixty-two of this article that did not include an adverse 42 employment action, emotional distress damages and punitive damages may 43 be awarded only when the actionable conduct was extreme and outrageous.
44 This limitation does not apply to individually named employee defend-45 ants.

46 § 767. Enforcement. 1. The provisions of this article are enforceable 47 solely by means of a civil cause of action commenced by an injured 48 employee.

49 2. An action to enforce the provisions of this article shall be 50 commenced within one year of the last act that constitutes the alleged 51 violation of section seven hundred sixty-two of this article.

52 § 768. Effect on collective bargaining agreements. This article shall 53 not prevent, interfere, exempt or supersede any current provisions of an 54 employee's existing collective bargaining agreement which provides 55 greater rights and protections than prescribed in this article nor shall 56 this article prevent any new provisions of the collective bargaining

1 agreement which provide greater rights and protections from being imple-
2 mented and applicable to such employee within such collective bargaining
3 agreement. Where the collective bargaining agreement provides greater 4 rights and protections than prescribed in this article, the recognized 5 collective bargaining agent may opt to accept or reject to be covered by 6 the provisions of this article.

7 § 769. Effect of other laws. 1. No provision of this article shall be 8 deemed to exempt any person or entity from any liability, duty or penal-9 ty provided by any other state law, rule or regulation.

10 2. The remedies provided in this article shall be in addition to any 11 remedies provided under any other provision of law, and nothing in this 12 article shall relieve any person from any liability, duty, penalty or 13 punishment provided by any other provision of law, except that if an 14 employee receives workers' compensation for medical costs for the same 15 injury or illness pursuant to both this article and the workers' compen-16 sation law, or compensation under both this article and such law in cash 17 payments for the same period of time not working as a result of the 18 compensable injury or illness or the unlawful employment practice, the 19 payments of workers' compensation shall be reimbursed from damages paid 20 under this article.

21 § 2. This act shall take effect immediately, and shall apply to 22 abusive conduct occurring on or after such date.
