STATE OF NEW YORK

3765

2021-2022 Regular Sessions

IN ASSEMBLY

January 28, 2021

Introduced by M. of A. DICKENS -- read once and referred to the Committee on Codes

AN ACT to amend the criminal procedure law, in relation to establishing conviction integrity units

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

Section 1. The criminal procedure law is amended by adding a new article 15 to read as follows:
ARTICLE 15
CONVICTION INTEGRITY UNITS
Section 15.10 Short title.
15.15 Definitions.
15.20 Conviction integrity unit.
§ 15.10 Short title.
This act shall be known and may be cited as the "conviction integrity units act."
§ 15.15 Definitions.
The following terms shall have the following meanings:
1. "Bona fide and compelling evidence" means that the evidence presented by the petitioning prosecutor establishes by a preponderance of the evidence that:
(a) the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually inno-
cent;
(b) newly discovered material evidence, if presented at or before the time of trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or
(c) there exists information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after a judgment of conviction and sentencing that:

EXPLANATION--Matter in italics (underscored) is new; matter in brackets [-] is old law to be omitted.

LBD03757-01-1

1	(i) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of
2	conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant proba-
3	bility that the result would have been different; or
4	(ii) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury
5	verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence.
6	2. "Convicted person" means the person whose conviction or sentence is
7	under review.
8	3. "Conviction integrity unit" means a program established by a prose-
9	cution agency to conduct extrajudicial, fact-based reviews of criminal
10	convictions and sentences.
11	4. "Establishing office" means the prosecution agency establishing a
12	conviction integrity unit.
13	5. "Legitimacy" means consistent with the United States and New York
14^{13}	constitutions, federal and state law, and all rules and principles of a
15	fair and just legal system.
16	6. "Petitioning prosecutor" means the prosecutor who files a civil
17	petition seeking relief under this part.
18	7. "Prosecution agency" means a county attorney, district attorney,
19	the office of the attorney general, or other prosecution agency as part
20	of a superior or local criminal court pursuant to article ten of this
21	chapter.
22	8. "Significant" or "significantly likely," for purposes of this part,
23	means to a large degree or of a noticeably or measurably large amount.
24	§ 15.20 Conviction integrity unit.
25	1. A prosecution agency may establish a conviction integrity unit to
26	investigate:
27	(a) plausible allegations of factual innocence;
28	(b) newly discovered material evidence; or
29	(c) information discovered or received by the prosecution agency after
30	trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing that:
31	(i) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of
32	conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant proba-
33	bility that the result would have been different; or
34	(ii) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury
35	verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence.
36	2. A conviction integrity unit may review a conviction or sentence if
37	the conviction and sentence:
38	(a) (i) occurred within the judicial district of the establishing
39	office; and
40	(ii) was prosecuted by the establishing office or another prosecution
41	agency under the direct control and supervision of the establishing
42	office; or
43	(b) (i) occurred within a different judicial district or was prose-
44	cuted by another prosecution agency not under the direct control and
45	supervision of the establishing office;
46	(ii) (A) the prosecution agency that prosecuted the case has not
47	established a conviction integrity unit; or
48	(B) the prosecution agency that prosecuted the case has established a
49	conviction integrity unit but determines that review of the conviction
50	or sentence should be conducted by a conviction integrity unit estab-
50 51	lished by another prosecution agency; and 51 52
	(iii) the district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or 53 E4	other prosecutor that directly oversees and supervises the requesting
54	agency requests the review.

3. (a) An individual convicted of a crime may submit an application to 1 a conviction integrity unit requesting review of the individual's 2 3 conviction or sentence as provided in subdivision two of this section. 4 (b) If a convicted person submits an application for review of a 5 conviction that resulted in a sentence of death, and the application is б submitted to any conviction integrity unit other than a conviction integrity unit established by the office of the attorney general, the 7 8 conviction integrity unit that receives the application shall forward 9 copies of the application to the office of the attorney general and to 10 the convicted person's current counsel of record. 11 (c) If a conviction integrity unit other than a conviction integrity unit established by the office of the attorney general, undertakes any 12 13 review of a conviction that resulted in a sentence of death, the 14 conviction integrity unit shall send the findings and recommendations promptly upon completion to the office of the attorney general and to 15 16 the convicted person's current counsel of record. 17 (d) If a conviction integrity unit other than a conviction integrity unit established by the office of the attorney general discovers or 18 19 receives any information relevant to a conviction that resulted in a 20 sentence of death, the conviction integrity unit that discovers or 21 receives the information shall promptly notify the office of the attorney general and the convicted person's current counsel of record. 22 4. The form of the application for review and its contents shall be 23 determined by the establishing office. 24 25 5. Once the review is complete, the conviction integrity unit shall 26 present its findings and recommendations to: 27 (a) the district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or other prosecutor who directly oversees and supervises the establishing office; 28 29 or 30 (b) if the review was requested by another prosecution agency under 31 paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section, the district attorney, 32 county attorney, attorney general, or other prosecutor who directly 33 oversees and supervises the prosecution agency that requested such 34 review. 35 6. The district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or other prosecutor who directly oversees and supervises the establishing office, 36 or who requested review under paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this 37 section, is not required to accept or follow the findings and recommen-38 39 dations of the conviction integrity unit. 40 7. The district attorney, county attorney, attorney general, or other 41 prosecutor who directly oversees and supervises the establishing office, 42 or who requested review under paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this 43 section, may commence a civil proceeding by filing a petition in the 44 superior court with jurisdiction over the case seeking a court order to: 45 (a) vacate the conviction; 46 (b) vacate the conviction and order a new trial; 47 (c) vacate the sentence and order further proceedings; or 48 (d) modify the conviction or sentence. 49 8. The decision to petition the superior court under subdivision seven of this section is solely within the discretion of the district attor-50 51 ney, county attorney, attorney general, or other prosecutor who directly oversees and supervises the establishing office, or who requested the 52 53 review under paragraph (b) of subdivision two of this section. 54 9. Except as otherwise provided in this part, a petition filed with 55 the superior court shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, and 56 shall include the number of the underlying criminal case that resulted

1	in the judgment of conviction or sentence in connection with which the
2	petitioning prosecutor seeks relief from the court.
3	10. If a petition is filed under subdivision seven of this section the
4	petitioning prosecutor shall promptly:
5	(a) notify the convicted person, in writing, that the petition has б	been filed and provide the convicted person with a copy of the petition
7	and all other documents filed in support of the petition;
8	(b) notify the victim or the victim's representative, if any, in writ-
9	ing, that a petition has been filed, provide the victim or the victim's
10	representative, if any, with a copy of the petition and all other docu-
11	ments filed in support, and advise the victim or the victim's represen-
12	tative of the victim's right to be heard by the court under subdivision
13	thirteen of this section; and
14	(c) if the underlying conviction was a felony offense, notify the
15	office of the attorney general, in writing, that the petition has been
16	filed and provide the attorney general with a copy of the petition and
17	all other documents filed in support.
18	11. If a petition is filed pursuant to subdivision seven of this
19	section, the office of the attorney general has standing to intervene as
20	of right and to participate as a party in the superior court proceeding
21	if:
22	(a) the convicted person submitted an application under paragraph (a)
23	of subdivision three of this section requesting review of the person's
24	conviction or sentence by the conviction integrity unit;
25	(b) the conviction integrity unit undertook review of the convicted
26	person's conviction or sentence as a result of the convicted person's
27	application; and
28	(c) the office of the attorney general reasonably believes the relief
29	requested by the petitioning prosecutor would be barred if the petition
30	were filed or the relief were requested directly by the convicted
31	person.
32	12. Upon review of the petition, the superior court may:
33	(a) dismiss the petition as provided in subdivision fourteen of this
34	section;
35	(b) require that additional evidence be submitted;
36	(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or
36 37	(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency,
36 37 38	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder-</pre>
36 37 38 39	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents:</pre>
36 37 38 39 40	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is
36 37 38 39 40 41	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent;</pre>
36 37 38 39 40 41 42	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents:
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by</pre>
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of</pre>
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that:</pre>
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of</pre>
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponderance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment proba-
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48	<pre>(c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant proba- bility that the result would have been different; or</pre>
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponderance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence.
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence.
36 37 38 39 40 41 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 50 51 52	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponder- ance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence. 13. If the court requests additional information or holds an evidentiary hearing, the convicted person, and the victim or the victim's repre-
36 37 38 39 40 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 51 52 53	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponderance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence. 13. If the court requests additional information or holds an evidentiary hearing, the convicted person, and the victim or the victim's representative, if any, and, if notice to the office of the attorney general
36 37 38 40 41 42 43 445 46 47 48 501 523 54	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponderance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence. 13. If the court requests additional information or holds an evidentiary hearing, the convicted person, and the victim or the victim's representative, if any, and, if notice to the office of the attorney general was required under paragraph (c) of subdivision ten of this section, the
36 37 38 39 40 42 43 44 45 46 47 48 49 51 52 53	 (c) conduct an evidentiary hearing; or (d) grant the relief requested by the petitioning prosecution agency, or any other relief expressly permitted by this part, if by a preponderance of the evidence the petition presents: (i) bona fide and compelling evidence that the convicted person is significantly likely to be factually innocent; (ii) bona fide and compelling newly discovered material evidence; or (iii) bona fide and compelling information discovered or received by the petitioning prosecution agency after the trial, judgment of conviction, and sentencing that: (A) if disclosed to the convicted person prior to trial, judgment of conviction, or sentencing, would have resulted in a significant probability that the result would have been different; or (B) significantly calls into question the legitimacy of the jury verdict, judgment of conviction, or sentence. 13. If the court requests additional information or holds an evidentiary hearing, the convicted person, and the victim or the victim's representative, if any, and, if notice to the office of the attorney general

1	14. A superior court may dismiss a petition without a hearing if the
2	court finds by a preponderance of the evidence that the petition fails
3	to assert grounds on which relief may be granted.
4	15. In granting relief under this part, the superior court may:
5	(a) vacate the conviction;
б	(b) vacate the conviction and order a new trial;
7	(c) vacate the sentence and order further proceedings; or
8	(d) modify the conviction or sentence.
9	16. The superior court shall state on the record the reasons for the
10	court's decision.
11	17. (a) An appeal may be taken by the petitioning prosecutor from a
12	final order entered under this part.
13	(b) If notice to the office of the attorney general was required under
14	paragraph (c) of subdivision ten of this section, the petitioning prose-
15	cutor shall consult with the attorney general prior to filing an appeal
16	and, if an appeal is filed by the petitioning prosecutor, the office of
17	the attorney general has standing to intervene as of right and to
18	participate as a party in all appellate proceedings.
19	18. Attorney fees, costs, orders of restitution, or any other form of
20	monetary relief are not available under this article.
21	19. Nothing in this section:
22	(a) precludes a conviction integrity unit from reviewing a conviction
23	or sentence based on information discovered or received directly by the
24	establishing office or received from an individual other than the
25	convicted individual;
26	(b) prohibits an establishing office from adopting additional written
27	criteria for the convictions or sentences the establishing office will
28	review or will decline to review; or
29	(c) requires a conviction integrity unit to review any conviction or
30	sentence.
31	20. Nothing in this article:
32	(a) including review by a conviction integrity unit or the filing of a
33	petition under subdivision seven of this section, may operate to stay
34	any other proceeding, or to extend, toll, or otherwise alter any other
35	deadline or limitation period under the provisions of this chapter;
36	(b) may revive a claim or cause of action or implicate a defense
37	otherwise available to the state under any other provision of this chap-
38	ter, or any other applicable provision of law; or
39	(c) confers standing or creates a private right of action for a
40	convicted person or victim of a convicted person.
41	21. Relief under this section does not exclude any other available
42	remedy.
43	§ 2. This act shall take effect on the one hundred twentieth day after 44 it shall have become a law.