the center of the nearest point of ingress or egress of the residence to the nearest real property boundary line of the school grounds.

- § 3. Section 168-t of the correction law, as amended by chapter 373 of the laws of 2007, is amended to read as follows:
- § 168-t. Penalty. 1. Any sex offender required to register or to verify pursuant to the provisions of this article who fails to register or verify in the manner and within the time periods provided for in this article shall be guilty of a class E felony upon conviction for the first offense, and upon conviction for a second or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a class D felony.
- 2. Any sex offender who violates the provisions of section one hundred sixty-eight-v of this article shall be guilty of a class A misdemeanor upon conviction for the first offense, and upon conviction for a second or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a class D felony.
- 3. Any sex offender who violates the provisions of subdivision three of section one hundred sixty-eight-e of this article shall be guilty of a class E felony upon conviction for the first offense, and upon conviction for a second or subsequent offense shall be guilty of a class D felony.
- 4. Any such failure to register [ex], verify, or abide by residency restrictions may also be the basis for revocation of parole pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law or the basis for revocation of probation pursuant to article four hundred ten of the criminal procedure law.
- 5. a. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary and in addition to any other penalty provided by this section, any sex offender found guilty of a violation of this section on two or more occasions shall be required to wear a location-transmitting device at all times for the duration of the period of probation, parole, conditional release or post-release supervision. The location-transmitting device shall be attached to the sex offender by the agency supervising the sex offender and such agency shall regularly and frequently monitor the information transmitted by the device.
- b. The cost of installing and maintaining the location-transmitting device shall be borne by the person subject to such condition unless the court determines such person is financially unable to afford such cost whereupon such cost may be imposed pursuant to a payment plan or waived. Such cost shall be considered a fine for the purposes of subdivision five of section 420.10 of the criminal procedure law. Such cost shall not replace, but shall instead be in addition to, any fines, surcharges, or other costs imposed pursuant to this chapter or other applicable laws.
- c. Any sex offender who is required to wear a location-transmitting device pursuant to this subdivision who violates such requirement shall be guilty of a class D felony and such violation may be the basis for revocation of parole pursuant to section two hundred fifty-nine-i of the executive law or the basis for revocation of probation pursuant to article four hundred ten of the criminal procedure law.
- 6. Any sex offender required to register or to verify pursuant to the provisions of this article who knowingly submits false information respecting his or her identity or residence in the course of completing his or her duty to register or to verify his or her residence pursuant to the provisions of this article shall be guilty of a class E felony.
- § 4. This act shall take effect on the first of November next succeeding the date on which it shall have become a law.
