50 Dating Service Consumer Bill of Rights

51 1. No social referral service contract shall require the payment by 52 you, the purchaser, of an amount greater than one thousand dollars. In 53 addition, no such contract may extend over a period of time greater than 54 two years.

2. No social referral service contract shall require you, the purchaser, to purchase a good or service which is directly or indirectly related to the social referral service. These extra services are known as ancillary services and, while these ancillary service may be offered to you, the law prohibits the seller from requiring that you purchase this service as a condition of your social referral service contract.

3. If your social referral service contract costs more than twenty-five dollars, the seller must furnish a minimum number of referrals per month to you. If this minimum amount is not furnished to you for two successive months, you have the option of cancelling the contract and receiving a full refund of all the money you paid, less a cancellation fee which cannot exceed either fifteen percent of the cash price or a pro rata amount for the number of referrals furnished to you.

4. Your social referral service contract must specify the distance which you, the purchaser, are willing to travel to meet any social referral. No social referrals shall be furnished where you and the referral live at a distance greater than the distance specified in the contract.

5. The provider must have an established policy to address the situation of your moving outside the area it services. This policy must be explained in your contract.

6. If any provision of the social referral service contract is violated, you have the right to bring a court action against the provider which has violated the contract.

8. Every contract for social referral service shall specify the distance which the buyer is willing to travel to meet any social referral. No social referral shall be furnished by the seller to the buyer if either the buyer or the social referral reside at a distance further than the distance specified in either the buyer's or social referral's contracts. This subdivision shall not apply to online dating services that are generally available to users on a regional, national, or global basis.

8-a. Every social referral service provider must establish and administer a fair and reasonable policy for the situation in which a purchaser moves to permanently reside at a location outside the service area of such provider. This policy must be set forth in every contract for social referral service. This subdivision shall not apply to online dating services that are generally available to users on a national or global basis.

9. (a) Whenever there shall be a violation of this section an application may be made by the attorney general in the name of the people of the state of New York to a court or justice having jurisdiction by a special proceeding to issue an injunction, and upon notice to the defendant of not less than five days, to enjoin and restrain the continuance of such violation; and if it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court or justice that the defendant has, in fact, violated this section, an injunction may be issued by the court or justice, enjoining and restraining any further violations, without requiring proof that any person has, in fact, been injured or damaged thereby. In any such proceeding, the court may make allowances to the attorney general as provided in paragraph six of subdivision (a) of section eighty-three hundred three of the civil practice law and rules, and direct restitution. Whenever the court shall determine that a violation of this section has occurred, the court may impose a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars for each violation. In connection with any such proposed application the attorney general is authorized to take

1 proof and make a determination of the relevant facts and to issue
2 subpoenas in accordance with the civil practice law and rules, and
3 direct restitution.

5 section may bring an action in his or her own name to enjoin such 6 violation, an action to recover his or her actual damages or fifty
7 dollars whichever is greater, or both such actions.

8 (c) In cities having a population over one million, the provisions of 9 this section may be enforced concurrently with the attorney general by 10 the director of a local or municipal consumer affairs office. In cities 11 having a population over one million, such local entities may also 12 require social referral services to be licensed. Such licensing require-
13 ments may be promulgated as are reasonably necessary to effectuate
14 licensure, provided, however, that such localities may not impose
15 substantive requirements that are inconsistent with or more restrictive
16 than those set forth in this section. Any fee for such license may not 17 exceed three hundred forty dollars for a two year period.

18 10. (a) An online dating service shall disclose to all of its New York
19 members known to have previously received and responded to an on-site
20 message from a banned member:

21 (1) the user name, identification number, or other profile identifier
22 of the banned member;

23 (2) the fact that the banned member was banned because, in the judg-
24 ment of the online dating service, the banned member may have been 25 using a false identity or may pose a significant risk of attempting to 26 obtain money from other members through fraudulent means;

27 (3) that a member should never send money or personal financial infor-
28 mation to another member; and

29 (4) a hyperlink to online information that clearly and conspicuously
30 addresses the subject of how to avoid being defrauded by another member
31 of an online dating service.

33 shall be:

34 (1) clear and conspicuous;

35 (2) by e-mail, text message, or other appropriate means of communi-
36 cation; and

38 time if the service has determined, based on an analysis of effective
39 messaging, that a different time is more effective, but in no event
40 later than three days after the fraud ban.

41 (c) An online dating service shall not be liable to any person, other 42 than the state of New York, for disclosing to any member that it has 43 banned a member, the user name or identifying information of the banned
44 member, or the reasons for the online dating service's decision to ban
45 such member in accordance with this subdivision. An online dating 46 service also shall not be liable to any person, other than the state of 47 New York, for the decisions regarding whether to ban a member, or how or 48 when to notify a member pursuant to this subdivision.

49 (d) This section does not diminish or adversely affect the protections
50 for online dating services that are afforded in 47 USC 230.

51 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 52 have become a law.
