division of criminal justice services and the superintendent of state police, or their designees. It shall meet as often as is necessary, but no less than four times per year, and under circumstances as are appropriate to fulfilling its duties under this section. All members shall be provided with written notice reasonably in advance of each meeting with the date, time and location of such meeting.

2. The task force shall: (a) collect and organize data on the nature and extent of hate crimes and domestic terrorism in the state; (b) iden-tify available federal, state and local programs that provide services to victims of hate crimes and acts of domestic terrorism; (c) coordinate when necessary with the bureau of criminal investigations task force defined in subdivision two of section two hundred sixteen of this arti-cle on issues pertaining to hate crimes; (d) identify available federal, state and local programs that provide services to prevent acts of hate crimes and domestic terrorism; (e) consult with governmental and non-go-vernmental organizations in developing recommendations to strengthen state and local efforts to prevent hate crimes and acts of domestic terrorism; (f) establish interagency protocols and collaboration between federal, state, and local law enforcement, state and governmental agen-cies, and non-governmental organizations; (g) evaluate approaches to increase public awareness about hate crimes and domestic terrorism and make recommendations on such approaches; (h) evaluate the effectiveness of training programs on hate crimes and domestic terrorism that have been designed for law enforcement personnel, prosecutors, other govern-mental employees, and non-governmental organizations, and make recommen-dations for improving the quality and effectiveness of such programs; and (i) convene any subcommittee necessary to consider specific issues as needed.

3. The task force shall report to the governor, the speaker of the assembly, the minority leader of the assembly, the temporary president of the senate and the minority leader of the senate no less than annually. Such report shall include data gathered by the task force on the nature, extent, and incidence of hate crimes and domestic terrorism in the state and a summary of any recommendations developed over the year to strengthen state and local prevention efforts and any other information deemed necessary. The task force shall additionally issue such reports and recommendations as it deems necessary to carry out its duties and responsibilities.

4. For the purposes of this section, "domestic terrorism" shall mean the commission, or possible commission, of acts covered under article four hundred ninety of the penal law, in which the perpetrator is or would be a resident of the United States or an organization that operates exclusively or primarily within the United States.

44 § 2. This act shall take effect on the sixtieth day after it shall 45 have become a law.
