AN ACT to amend the labor law, in relation to contract provisions waiving certain substantive and procedural rights

The People of the State of New York, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

1	Section 1. The labor law is amended by adding a new section 211-b to
2	read as follows:
3	§ 211-b. Contracts; certain provisions prohibited. 1. A provision in
4	any contract waiving any substantive or procedural right or remedy
5	relating to a claim of discrimination, non-payment of wages or benefits,
б	retaliation, harassment or violation of public policy in employment
7	shall be deemed unconscionable, void and unenforceable, with respect to
8	any such claim arising after the waiver is made. No right or remedy
9	arising under this section, this chapter, common law, any other
10	provision of law or rule of procedure or the constitution shall be pros-
11	pectively waived. This section shall not render void or unenforceable
12	the remainder of the contract or agreement. The provisions of this
13	subdivision shall not apply to the terms of any collective bargaining
14	agreement between an employer and the bona fide collective bargaining
15	representative of that employer's employees.
16	2. A provision in any contract or agreement which has the purpose or
17	effect of concealing the details relating to a claim of discrimination,
18	non-payment of wages or benefits, retaliation, harassment or violation
19	of public policy in employment, including claims that are submitted to 20	arbitration, shall be deemed unconscionable, void and unenforceable. The
21	provisions of this subdivision shall not apply to the terms and condi-
22	tions of an award issued by an arbitrator pursuant to article seventy-
